Huskers Face Panthers

GAME HAS UNUSUAL FEATURES

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

An unusual Nebraska football team will meet the Pittsburgh Panthers under unusual conditions Saturday at Memorial Stadium in the 1954 Homecoming contest. Game time is 2 p.m.

What makes the game unusual is that the Cornhuskers have been rated a six-point favorite—a real oddity in the Pitt series—and the weatherman has promised more spring-like conditions. The forecast calls for a high temperature of near 68, with moderate northwesterly winds.

A crowd of 39,000 persons is expected.

Nebraska, making a determined bid to represent the Big Seven in the Orange Bowl on New Year's Day, will be relying on its great ground game, which has averaged almost 300 yards per game, to pick up the Huskers' fourth win over the Panthers.

Passing Stressed

However, Coach Bill Glassford has been drilling the Cornhuskers on passing this week in an effort to bolster the aerial game in case the always rugged Pitt line halts such Big Red stalwarts as Ron Clark, Bob Smith, Willie Greenlaw and Dennis Korinek.

The Huskers will enter the game with a decided shortage of ends, with two converted backs—Jon McWilliams and Sylvester Harris—ready to fill the breach. Jack Braley, LeRoy Butherus and Dean Lux will miss the Panther tilt because of injuries or illness.

Pittsburgh will be playing with the odds in its favor. Never have the Cornhuskers beaten the Panthers in Lincoln, although three games at Memorial Stadium—1928-30-32—ended in scoreless ties. Nebraska's three victories all came at Pitt, two of them on consecutive years, 1939 and 1940. The other win came in the series inaugural in 1921, 10-0.

In 18 games, the record stands Pittsburgh 12, Nebraska 3, and 3 ties.

Rough At First

The 1954 Panthers found the going rough in the early stages of the season, but they rallied from three straight losses and won the next three—Navy, Northwestern and West Virginia—before falling to Ohio State last week.

Pacing the Panther attack is a sophomore quarterback, Corny Salvaterra, and a fine halfback, Henry (Model T) Ford. Pitt's line is fashioned after all previous Panther editions—big and tough—with Tackles Lou Palatella and Eldred Kraemer as the top performers.

Nebraska will once again commit its forces one platoon at a time in hopes that the Huskers will follow the pattern that has made them the Cinderella team of the Big Seven.

Firmly seated in the No. 2 spot in the loop, the Cornhuskers have surprised all guessers by posting a 4-1 mark in conference play and a 5-2 season record.

Charley Bryant, senior guard from Omaha, will captain the Huskers in the Homecoming battle which will feature the presentation of the Homecoming queen at halftime.

RALLY...DISPLAYS...TRAFFIC JAMS—IT'S NU HOMECOMING

By DICK SIMONSON

Rally . . . bonfire . . . mutilated "panthers" . . . old grads . . . homecoming displays traffic snarls — and so Nebraska U's 1954 Homecoming weekend got underway Friday night

Police said 40,000 persons — 1,000 more than will attend Saturday's game between the Huskers and Pitt — clogged campus streets and sidewalks for more than four hours to glimpse the paper mache and crepe paper house decorations along R and 16th Streets.

Traffic was backed up in a double line from 17th and R east to 25th, south to G, and north to the Elgin Watch factory. One woman said it took her an hour to drive from O to R — three boocks — on 17th.

Earlier in the evening, "official" festivities started with a student rally, which wended its way from Selleck Quadrangle, down Fraternity Row, and on to the football practice field where the frenzied business of burning a panther atop a huge bonfire was undertaken.

Game Captain Charley Bryant told the students that he and his teammates were "confident of a victory" over the Pitt eleven.

The throng of 2,500 was thanked by Trainer Paul Schneider for its past support.

"Make as much noise tomorrow as you have in the past — and tonight — and rest assured the team will come out on top," he said.

The organized house decorations were devoted to noisy, colorful themes of shooting, boiling, hanging or otherwise making short work of the Panther.

And alums could make themselves "right at home" after taking heed of the "Welcome" placards adorning the houses.

Thieves Take Eagles' Club Safe And $800

Burglars who entered the Eagle's Club at 210 North 10th absconded with close to $800 and a safe, Earl Ossenkop, 2506 N, secretary-manager of the club, told police Friday.

Police said the burglars had broken through the skylight of the building into the attic, and then entered the offices through the ladies' room.

A total of $328, some of which was destined for charity purposes, was taken from four filing cabinets. The $466 in the safe included cash receipts from Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights.

Weighty Problem Traps Two Men

Two Lincoln men were caught by police with a weighty problem on their hands Friday.

Police said the two stole 50 pounds of lead and two sewer pipe sections belonging to the Don Shurtleff Construction Co. from a railroad spur in Havelock.

The men, ages 21 and 25, were apprehended by police after attempting to sell the pipe and lead to several junk delers in the city.

One scrap metal dealer questioned the two as to who owned the new metal, police said, and the men "got mad" and left.

The men were booked in city jail on open charges.

United Strike Is Set

Six Airlines To Feel Effect

WASHINGTON (AP)—The AFL's Machinist Union said Friday its scheduled nationwide strike of 20,000 ground service employes on six major airlines, including United, will take place at 8 a.m. CST on Nov. 19, a week from Friday.

The White House is expected to name an emergency board before the strike gets under way, with the effect of postponing any walkout for 60 days.

The union recognized this possibility and said it would postpone the strike if President Eisenhower names the board or there is a settlement.

The other affected air lines are Capital, Eastern, National, Northwest and Trans World.

The union has asked for a uniform wage raise on all the airlines, with a 5 per cent increase over present top rates. The companies have demanded a number of changes in union working rules.

Local officials of United Airlines were unavailable early Saturday morning to comment on any effect the proposed strike might have in Lincoln.

BRAVE HEART TIRES

He Lived 18 Years In An Iron Lung

Paralyzed But Cheerful—Fred Snite In 1950

Polio Sufferer Hope Symbol For Thousands

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Fred B. Snite Jr., infantile paralysis victim who lived 18 years and 7 months in an iron lung, died Friday while here to participate in the Florida state bridge tournament.

Snite, accompanied by his wife and two medical aids, came here Thursday from his Miami Beach home for the first round of bridge. He failed to show up for Friday's round, and was found dead in his room at the George Washington Hotel.

Apparently he had been taking a nap and died quietly in his sleep, still encased in the artificial respirator which kept him alive through the years. The machine was working normally.

There was no official announcement of the cause of death, but friends said " a brave heart grew too tired from the strain."

His body was being returned to Miami Beach.

Father Was Prepared

Fred's father was playing golf when he was told to make an urgent call to the priest of the Catholic church the family attends.

"I knew at once what it was," said Fred Snite Sr. "I'd been expecting it for the last 18 years."

The Snite family came from Chicago only last Sunday. Mrs. Snite flew down and Fred Jr., in his iron lung and attendants, formed a caravan of bus, station wagon and car.

"Fred had an ulcer which bothered him all the way down," his father reported. "Nonetheless he played bridge during practically the whole trip. In fact he won all our money."

Natural Death

Joseph Holleman, an undertaker with the Vogel Funeral Home, said death occurred about 9:30 a.m. EST in the hotel room. He said he understood it was natural and stemmed from polio.

Shortly after 4 p.m. the body was sealed in the iron lung, loaded aboard Snit's special bus and returned to Miami Beach.

Deputy Sheriff C. B. Bowen said Holleman called him a few minutes before 5 p.m. to tell him Snite was dead. Holleman said Dr. James C. White was called to Snite's hotel room.

There was no indication that Snite was in other than his usual condition. Members of the bridge tournament said he participated Thursday afternoon and night.

Besides his parents, Snite is survived by his widow, three children, Teressa Marie, 14; Catherine Bernadette, 12, and Mary, 9.

A spokesman for the American Medical Assn. said Snite had lived longer under iron lung conditions than any other polio sufferer listed in their records.

Snite 44, was stricken with complete paralysis at Peiping, China, in April, 1936, a few weeks before his 26th birthday. He lay at death's door in a Chinese hospital for months, then was taken to his home in Chicago in an iron lung.

A PAIR OF GRATEFUL LADIES—

$40,000 FOR ONE DATE

CUYLER, N. Y. (AP)—Joe Kogut, a handsome bachelor, slipped out of sooty coveralls and into a suit to greet newsmen who came to ask about his $40,000 inheritance from a woman he took to dinner four years ago and never saw again.

"She must have been a lonely woman," the 45-year-old railroader mused. "She must have enjoyed my company."

He spoke of Miss Margaret Jorgensen of Oshkosh, Wis., who died in 1951 at 66 and willed him all of her $142,000 estate. However, relatives claimed and won a large share. Attorney fees and administrative expenses claimed another large chunk.

Father Invalid

Kogut is a fireman for the New York Central Railroad on a run between Buffalo and Syracuse. He used to be safety supervisor, working out of New York City, but he gave that up to move back to this tiny hamlet in central New York. He wanted to be closer to his parents. His father, Charles, is an invalid.

Kogut had just gotten home from Buffalo Friday when his phone started ringing. He recalled: "It was four years ago in Chicago. I was attending a railroad safety meeting and just coming down in the elevator.

"The election was just over and I remarked to the lady:

"It's been a rough day for the Democrats, hasn't it?"

"She replied, 'You talk like a Democrat.'

"I said, 'I am, but I don't always vote that way.'

"It turned out she was a rock-ribbed Republican and we had a mild discussion.

"I took her to dinner.

"Afterwards, we said goodbye. I sent her Christmas cards. She wrote to me a few times.

"But I never saw her again."

Attractive Woman

Kogut described Miss Jorgensen as an attractive woman. He said he thought she was about 55 years old then.

Final distribution of Miss Jorgensen's estate was ordered this week in Winnebago County Court.

The handsome railroader, one of 11 children, said, "I don't plan to do anything unusual with the money—probably make some sound investments.

"But I do plan to take a trip to Florida."

He said he plans to go by train.

—$100 FOR TWO BAGS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — What happened to Mike McDonnell should happen to every bellhop who's been carrying other people's luggage for the better part of 30 years.

While Mike, now 66, was on duty last Thursday at a downtown hotel — The Adelphia — he carried a couple of suitcases out to a taxicab for a little, old lady who had just checked out of the hotel.

Outside, the little, old lady handed Mike four one dollar bills. Mike was a wee bit surprised at the size of the tip and looked at the four bills in his hand.

"Isn't that enough?" asked the little, old lady.

"It's more than enough," replied Mike. "You're very generous."

Suddenly, the little, old lady took back the four one dollar bills and handed Mike another note. "Here," she said, "take that one, instead."

Mike stared at the bill. "But, lady," he said, "that's a $100 bill."

"Yes, it is," said the little old lady, "and you may keep it."

With that, she got in her taxi and off she went, leaving a stunned, but gloriously happy bellhop standing on the sidewalk.

Mother Who Killed Daughter Gets Life

RINGGOLD, Ga. (AP)—A 24-year-old mother of five children was given a life term for murder in the fatal beating of her 2½-year old paralytic and partially blind daughter.

Mrs. Joyce McNeese, who was married at 16 and whose husband is in prison, was found guilty shortly before midnight. The jury recommended mercy.

Without the plea, Judge Freeman McClure would have been compelled to give the death penalty. Under the life sentence, Mrs. McNeese will be eligible for parole after serving seven years.

Dr. C. W. Stephenson testified Mrs. McNeese told him and Sheriff J. M. Moreland that she whipped the child, Donna Jane, with a belt because the child "was crying and wouldn't quit."

"I knew at once what it was," said Fred Snite Sr. "I'd been expecting it for the last 18 years."

The Snite family came from Chicago only last Sunday. Mrs. Snite flew down and Fred Jr., in his iron lung and attendants, formed a caravan of bus, station wagon and car.

"Fred had an ulcer which bothered him all the way down," his father reported. "Nonetheless he played bridge during practically the whole trip. In fact he won all our money."

Natural Death

Joseph Holleman, an undertaker with the Vogel Funeral Home, said death occurred about 9:30 a.m. EST in the hotel room. He said he understood it was natural and stemmed from polio.

Shortly after 4 p.m. the body was sealed in the iron lung, loaded aboard Snit's special bus and returned to Miami Beach.

Deputy Sheriff C. B. Bowen said Holleman called him a few minutes before 5 p.m. to tell him Snite was dead. Holleman said Dr. James C. White was called to Snite's hotel room.

There was no indication that Snite was in other than his usual condition. Members of the bridge tournament said he participated Thursday afternoon and night.

Besides his parents, Snite is survived by his widow, three children, Teressa Marie, 14; Catherine Bernadette, 12, and Mary, 9.

A spokesman for the American Medical Assn. said Snite had lived longer under iron lung conditions than any other polio sufferer listed in their records.

Snite 44, was stricken with complete paralysis at Peiping, China, in April, 1936, a few weeks before his 26th birthday. He lay at death's door in a Chinese hospital for months, then was taken to his home in Chicago in an iron lung.

A PAIR OF GRATEFUL LADIES—

$40,000 FOR ONE DATE

CUYLER, N. Y. (AP)—Joe Kogut, a handsome bachelor, slipped out of sooty coveralls and into a suit to greet newsmen who came to ask about his $40,000 inheritance from a woman he took to dinner four years ago and never saw again.

"She must have been a lonely woman," the 45-year-old railroader mused. "She must have enjoyed my company."

He spoke of Miss Margaret Jorgensen of Oshkosh, Wis., who died in 1951 at 66 and willed him all of her $142,000 estate. However, relatives claimed and won a large share. Attorney fees and administrative expenses claimed another large chunk.

Father Invalid

Kogut is a fireman for the New York Central Railroad on a run between Buffalo and Syracuse. He used to be safety supervisor, working out of New York City, but he gave that up to move back to this tiny hamlet in central New York. He wanted to be closer to his parents. His father, Charles, is an invalid.

Kogut had just gotten home from Buffalo Friday when his phone started ringing. He recalled: "It was four years ago in Chicago. I was attending a railroad safety meeting and just coming down in the elevator.

"The election was just over and I remarked to the lady:

"It's been a rough day for the Democrats, hasn't it?"

"She replied, 'You talk like a Democrat.'

"I said, 'I am, but I don't always vote that way.'

"It turned out she was a rock-ribbed Republican and we had a mild discussion.

"I took her to dinner.

"Afterwards, we said goodbye. I sent her Christmas cards. She wrote to me a few times.

"But I never saw her again."

Attractive Woman

Kogut described Miss Jorgensen as an attractive woman. He said he thought she was about 55 years old then.

Final distribution of Miss Jorgensen's estate was ordered this week in Winnebago County Court.

The handsome railroader, one of 11 children, said, "I don't plan to do anything unusual with the money—probably make some sound investments.

"But I do plan to take a trip to Florida."

He said he plans to go by train.

—$100 FOR TWO BAGS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — What happened to Mike McDonnell should happen to every bellhop who's been carrying other people's luggage for the better part of 30 years.

While Mike, now 66, was on duty last Thursday at a downtown hotel — The Adelphia — he carried a couple of suitcases out to a taxicab for a little, old lady who had just checked out of the hotel.

Outside, the little, old lady handed Mike four one dollar bills. Mike was a wee bit surprised at the size of the tip and looked at the four bills in his hand.

"Isn't that enough?" asked the little, old lady.

"It's more than enough," replied Mike. "You're very generous."

Suddenly, the little, old lady took back the four one dollar bills and handed Mike another note. "Here," she said, "take that one, instead."

Mike stared at the bill. "But, lady," he said, "that's a $100 bill."

"Yes, it is," said the little old lady, "and you may keep it."

With that, she got in her taxi and off she went, leaving a stunned, but gloriously happy bellhop standing on the sidewalk.

Mother Who Killed Daughter Gets Life

RINGGOLD, Ga. (AP)—A 24-year-old mother of five children was given a life term for murder in the fatal beating of her 2½-year old paralytic and partially blind daughter.

Mrs. Joyce McNeese, who was married at 16 and whose husband is in prison, was found guilty shortly before midnight. The jury recommended mercy.

Without the plea, Judge Freeman McClure would have been compelled to give the death penalty. Under the life sentence, Mrs. McNeese will be eligible for parole after serving seven years.

Dr. C. W. Stephenson testified Mrs. McNeese told him and Sheriff J. M. Moreland that she whipped the child, Donna Jane, with a belt because the child "was crying and wouldn't quit."

Tito Tightens Ties With West

Overtures Of Russians Snubbed

...By Yugoslavia

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN

WASHINGTON (INS)—U. S. officials said Friday that despite Russian overtures to Yugoslavia, the Communist government of Marshal Tito is strengthening its ties with the West.

The officials even forecast that Tito can be expected to try to make a military arrangement with Italy now that the Trieste problem has been cleared away as a point of friction between the two nations.

Tito

All information available through official sources in Washington gives evidence that makes it appear highly unlikely Tito will swing back into the Communist power bloc which bounced him as a dissident from Stalinism in 1948.

Favorable Factors

Factors listed as binding Tito to the West were:

1. The fact that he learned by bitter experience that in Eastern Europe a nation must be a complete Soviet satellite to belong to the cominform bloc. The Yugoslavs are most jealous of their independence.

2. Yugoslav trade ties with Western Europe and the United States have been most satisfactory for Tito.

3. Yugsolva military ties with Greece and Turkey have developed very well from the Yugoslav viewpoint.

4. Tito personally favors a balance of power that would help avert war for he and other Yugoslavs fear his regime could not win in a general war no matter which side was victorious. The thinking is that if the Soviets won they would wipe out the rebellious Communist government and that if the free world won there would be irresistible pressure against any kind of Communist regime still existing.

The U.S. is pleased with the degree of co-operation Yugoslavia is giving the free world militarily and diplomatically and is not afraid now that Yugoslavia will go beyond acceptable limits in trading with the Communist nations.

Mercury Trade Refused

As an example, last summer Tito refused to trade banned mercury to the Russians for wheat even though a drought had left Yugoslavia dangerously short of grain.

U.S. experts say the Russian effort to woo Yugoslavia began a year and a half ago, just about the time that Turkey, Greece and Yugoslavia began negotiating their military alliance at Ankara.

It is believed the Soviet objective was not to bring Tito back into the Communist bloc as much as it was to try to turn him away from the Balkan alliance which supplements NATO in the European defense system.

Last summer Tito flatly told the Soviet ambassador to Belgrade that he could get nowhere in efforts to break up the three-power alliance as far as Yugoslavia was concerned.

HUNTING COMPANION SLAIN—

Minister Who Held Funeral Rites Faces Murder Count

BLAIRSVILLE, Ga. (INS)—A minister who conducted funeral services last Monday for a slain hunting companion was arrested Friday on a murder warrant in connection with his friend's death.

The Rev. Carl Brewer, 46, was taken into custody the day after he revealed through his attorney that it was his gun that killed Alvin Towe last Friday.

Towe, 36-year-old farmer and the father of seven children, was fatally wounded on the first day of the deer season after he and The Rev. Mr. Brewer became separated while hunting.

The minister said that "fear of the consequences and shock" kept him from admitting for a week that he fired the fatal shot.

Monday he conducted funeral services for Towe, a member of his congregation and a frequent hunting companion for the past two or three years.

Lt. Woody Wilson of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and Sheriff Verge Kelly arrested the pastor Friday afternoon at his home on a warrant sworn out by Towe's brother.

His attorney immediately asked a court hearing to set bail while a coroner's inquest was called for Saturday.

Brewer made no further statement about the case. In his admission made public by Attorney Jack C. Tarpley, the rural preacher said he aimed at a squirrel, after becoming separated from Towe, and then discovered he had shot his companion.

He said he notified the sheriff at once, but did not disclose that he had done the shooting.

No Shortage Of Doctors Here, Only Distribution Said Poor

Lincoln Star Special

BEATRICE, Neb.—"There is actually no shortage of doctors in Nebraska, it is simply a matter of distribution," Dr. Perry Tollman told members of the Gage County Medical Society here at its regular meeting.

Dr. Tollman, dean of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine at Omaha, told about 20 members of the group at Lutheran Hospital that large cities, such as Omaha, actually have a surplus of doctors and that the shortages were in such places as the Sandhills country of Nebraska.

"Many of these sparsely populated areas do not have adequate facilities and some could not support a local doctor," Dr. Tollman pointed out.

The dean said he believes the problem will eventually solve itself by natural migration of doctors to the outstate communities.

The College of Medicine turns out about 80 doctors annually, Dr. Tollmann said, and about 72 of these are native Nebraskans. Fifty-three per cent of the class of 1947 went into general practice in Nebraska with the balance going on to specialize. Dr. Tollman told the group that he believes there is now an adequate supply of medical students for future needs.

Vishinsky Wants Ike's Program To Be Inside The U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)— Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky said Friday Moscow would like to take part in President Eisenhower's atoms-for-peace program —but on conditions so far fought by the West.

The Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister told the U. N. Assembly's political committee that the proposed international atomic agency suggested by the United States and its atomic Allies should be inside the United Nations and subject to the Security Council.

The Eisenhower plan, as endorsed by Britain, France, Canada Belgium, South Africa and Australia, envisions the creation of the interatnional agency as a specialized agency of the U. N., with a loose tie to the world organization.

Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., chief American delegate, replied briefly to Vishinsky. For the first time, he told the committee that the United States never has said the agency should not be linked to the Security Council. He stressed, however, that the United States was anxious to avoid getting the atomic agency tangled up in the veto.

The tone of the one hour and 45 minute speech by Vishinsky and Lodge's brief reply showed that both sides are jockeying for the best position in the closed-door negotiations which appear to be in the offing.

In short, it appeared neither side has definitely and finally made up its mind. Lodge will make a detailed reply early next week, probably Monday.

Jimmy Gets Old Elephant Molar

LOGAN, Utah (AP)—Jimmy Weed, 9, who would like to become a scientist if arithmetic didn't go with it, learned this week he is the possessor of an ice-age elephant tooth.

So he's going back to the east shore of Bear Lake to see if he can find the remainder of the elephant.

He found the tooth two weeks ago while rock-hunting with his grandfather.

It took him two weeks to convince his mother that he should identify the strange object.

And he was late for school the day he called on Dr. J. Stewart Williams, head of the geology department at Utah State Agricultural College, and learned that the huge tooth once belonged to a mammoth.

The tooth is so large that Jimmy wasn't a bit surprised to learn that the elephant had but eight of them.

First Lutheran Okays Budget Of $18,700

First Lutheran Church congregation at its annual meeting Friday night approved a budget of $18,700 for the coming year.

It also approved a special financial appeal to run from 1955 to 1957 with a goal of $30,000, which will be used to eliminate present indebtedness and begin a memorial organ fund.

It was reported that a section of northeast Lincoln has been assigned to the Augustana Lutheran church for study and a possible new mission.

Reports were made by the church treasurer and treasurers of organizations within the church. These showed income of the church increased by $11,443 in 1954 compared to 1953.

Plans were made for the church's 85th anniversary which will be celebrated next year. The congregation extended invitations to the Nebraska Conference and the Women's Missionary Society of the conference to hold their 1955 conventions at the church.

Pastor J. Sabin Swenson said in his annual report that average attendance for the year was 345. The most outstanding building improvement made during the year was the purchase of a new parsonage.

The following persons were elected to church boards:

Deacons
Carl W. Olson — Dean Sandahl
Leland Olsen — Edward Anderson
Trustees
Don Ericson — Vern Herngren
Charles Cleveland

Air Battle Scare

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Citizens breathed easier after an "eagle scare." Boy Took Piece Of Bread—

Dad Ignored Dying Girl, Scalded Son, Mom Says

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — State police said Friday a mother claims her husband refused to take her dying daughter to a doctor and thrust her little son into scalding water after hanging him in a bag for several hours.

Richard P. Wilkinson, deputy Cambria County coroner, said the girl died after she ate a piece of poisoned bread intended for rats.

The tender hands of a nurse can only salve the physical injuries of tiny Bobby Bell. (AP Wirephoto.)

The son and two other children in the family are hospitalized and a fifth child was placed in Cambria County children's home.

A Reprimand

State police Pvt. Matthew O'Brien, who preferred the charge, said Bell admitted putting the boy's feet in scalding water to reprimand him for taking a piece of bread from the table.

The officer said Bell, a Korean War veteran, denied kicking his son.

After his arraignment before Mrs. Elizabeth Rowland, a justice of the peace, Bell was committed to jail to await court action. His bail was set at $10,000.

Mrs. Bell, 27, was released after questioning.

Sister Died

Ruth Ann Bell, 2 years old, died in Cambria County Hospital Wednesday. Her brother, Robert, 3, is in the hospital suffering from first and second degree burns on both legs, and a head injury.

The hospital said two other children in the family, Lorraine, 1½, and Bessie, 5 weeks, are being treated for malnutrition.

The oldest child, Billy, 6, has been placed in the Cambria county children's home by representatives of the County Welfare Service.

Buddhist Beauties

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — They are going to have a "Miss Asia" beauty contest here in 1957 but those in Atlantic City and Long Beach were never like this one. The Bankok Tribune says the contest will be part of a celebration marking the 2,500th year of the Buddhist era. So all entries must be Buddhists. And they have to wear their national costumes — not bathing suits.

Heavy Fines Levied For Disturbance

Maximum fines of $100 against two Lincoln men were imposed in Lancaster County Court on disturbing the peace charges involving a 25-year-old divorcee.

Thomas E. Mowry, 24, of 1131 H, Apt. 5, and Wilbur H. Stalons Jr., 26,, of 451 So. 41st, were charged separately with a Nov. 11 offense against the woman.

The court was informed that the defendants picked up the woman at her home after inviting her to go for a ride with them, and then took her to temporarily unoccupied quarters, where they disrobed and photographed her in the nude.

Police arrested the two defendants on a complaint of the woman made following the incident.

He stressed, however, that the United States was anxious to avoid getting the atomic agency tangled up in the veto.

The tone of the one hour and 45 minute speech by Vishinsky and Lodge's brief reply showed that both sides are jockeying for the best position in the closed-door negotiations which appear to be in the offing.

In short, it appeared neither side has definitely and finally made up its mind. Lodge will make a detailed reply early next week, probably Monday.

Jimmy Gets Old Elephant Molar

LOGAN, Utah (AP)—Jimmy Weed, 9, who would like to become a scientist if arithmetic didn't go with it, learned this week he is the possessor of an ice-age elephant tooth.

So he's going back to the east shore of Bear Lake to see if he can find the remainder of the elephant.

He found the tooth two weeks ago while rock-hunting with his grandfather.

It took him two weeks to convince his mother that he should identify the strange object.

And he was late for school the day he called on Dr. J. Stewart Williams, head of the geology department at Utah State Agricultural College, and learned that the huge tooth once belonged to a mammoth.

The tooth is so large that Jimmy wasn't a bit surprised to learn that the elephant had but eight of them.

This Chick Unaware Of Low Egg Prices

ULYSSES, Neb. (AP)—When a half-pound egg produced by a chicken in the flock of Mr. and Mrs. John Jisa was cracked open, there was a second egg inside.

The double egg was 7⅝ inches in circumference and 8¾ inches around lengthwise. The yolk of the larger egg surrounded the small one.

First Lutheran Okays Budget Of $18,700

First Lutheran Church congregation at its annual meeting Friday night approved a budget of $18,700 for the coming year.

It also approved a special financial appeal to run from 1955 to 1957 with a goal of $30,000, which will be used to eliminate present indebtedness and begin a memorial organ fund.

It was reported that a section of northeast Lincoln has been assigned to the Augustana Lutheran church for study and a possible new mission.

Reports were made by the church treasurer and treasurers of organizations within the church. These showed income of the church increased by $11,443 in 1954 compared to 1953.

Plans were made for the church's 85th anniversary which will be celebrated next year. The congregation extended invitations to the Nebraska Conference and the Women's Missionary Society of the conference to hold their 1955 conventions at the church.

Pastor J. Sabin Swenson said in his annual report that average attendance for the year was 345. The most outstanding building improvement made during the year was the purchase of a new parsonage.

The following persons were elected to church boards:

Deacons
Carl W. Olson — Dean Sandahl
Leland Olsen — Edward Anderson
Trustees
Don Ericson — Vern Herngren
Charles Cleveland

Foot Of Her Class

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Rose Marie Florey, 17, studied hard for the role of "The Girl Who Falls Down" in the St. Louis Municipal Opera production of "Oklahoma!" and did just that in a rehearsal, breaking her foot. The part went to a good friend and "just about broke my heart as well as my foot," Miss Florey said.

Air Battle Scare

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Citizens breathed easier after an "eagle scare." It wasn't an eagle—just a tame, red-tailed hawk trying to be sociable that swooped down and "attacked" a dog and reportedly indicated a willingness to do battle with human beings. The hawk is the pet of Col. Virgil R. Miller, chairman of the Military Science Department at the University of Michigan.

Boy Took Piece Of Bread—

Dad Ignored Dying Girl, Scalded Son, Mom Says

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — State police said Friday a mother claims her husband refused to take her dying daughter to a doctor and thrust her little son into scalding water after hanging him in a bag for several hours.

Richard P. Wilkinson, deputy Cambria County coroner, said the girl died after she ate a piece of poisoned bread intended for rats.

The tender hands of a nurse can only salve the physical injuries of tiny Bobby Bell. (AP Wirephoto.)

The son and two other children in the family are hospitalized and a fifth child was placed in Cambria County children's home.

The father, William G. Bell, 26, was charged late Friday with assault and battery with intent to kill.

A Reprimand

State police Pvt. Matthew O'Brien, who preferred the charge, said Bell admitted putting the boy's feet in scalding water to reprimand him for taking a piece of bread from the table.

The officer said Bell, a Korean War veteran, denied kicking his son.

After his arraignment before Mrs. Elizabeth Rowland, a justice of the peace, Bell was committed to jail to await court action. His bail was set at $10,000.

Mrs. Bell, 27, was released after questioning.

Sister Died

Ruth Ann Bell, 2 years old, died in Cambria County Hospital Wednesday. Her brother, Robert, 3, is in the hospital suffering from first and second degree burns on both legs, and a head injury.

The hospital said two other children in the family, Lorraine, 1½, and Bessie, 5 weeks, are being treated for malnutrition.

The oldest child, Billy, 6, has been placed in the Cambria county children's home by representatives of the County Welfare Service.

Buddhist Beauties

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — They are going to have a "Miss Asia" beauty contest here in 1957 but those in Atlantic City and Long Beach were never like this one. The Bankok Tribune says the contest will be part of a celebration marking the 2,500th year of the Buddhist era. So all entries must be Buddhists. And they have to wear their national costumes — not bathing suits.

Heavy Fines Levied For Disturbance

Maximum fines of $100 against two Lincoln men were imposed in Lancaster County Court on disturbing the peace charges involving a 25-year-old divorcee.

Thomas E. Mowry, 24, of 1131 H, Apt. 5, and Wilbur H. Stalons Jr., 26, of 451 So. 41st, were charged separately with a Nov. 11 offense against the woman.

The court was informed that the defendants picked up the woman at her home after inviting her to go for a ride with them, and then took her to temporarily unoccupied quarters, where they disrobed and photographed her in the nude.

Police arrested the two defendants on a complaint of the woman made following the incident.

Plans Approved For New Branch Library

$52,000 ESTIMATE ALSO OK'D

Plans and a $52,000 cost estimate for construction of a new branch library at 27th and South have been approved by the Lincoln City Library Board.

The plans are expected to be submitted for City Council approval within the next two weeks. More than 4,000 square feet of floor space will be provided in the one-story brick and glass structure.

Entrance will be gained from both 27th and South with space in the rear for parking of 14 cars. Bids will be received on several alternates, including air conditioning, folding doors, book shelf space, etc.

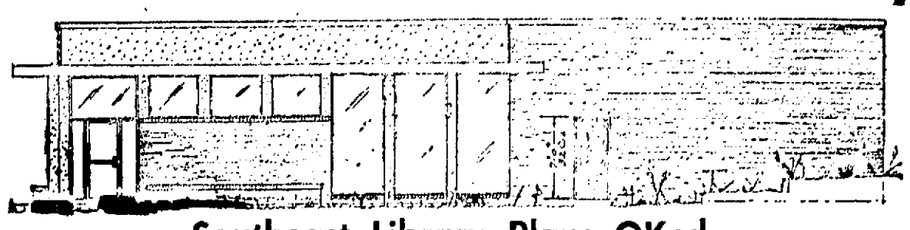
The new branch will be the first new library construction in more than 25 years. The board also discussed the possibility of beginning plans for construction of a branch in the vicinity of 48th south of Randolph.

This branch would have to be financed with a regular mill levy approved by the City Council. All funds would have to be provided in one year.

The city charter prohibits any department from accumulating tax funds from one year to the next except in cases of bond issues. All balances at the end of the fiscal year must be turned in to the general fund.

Funds for the 27th and South branch come from two sources, $33,000 from the Library's special fund (mostly gifts and donations) and the remainder out of tax funds. The use of tax funds, according to Library Director Charles Dalrymple, will not reduce the book purchase program.

This program, he said, will be maintained with other special library funds that have been left in the past to accumulate.



Southeast Library Plans OKed

Plans for the new Southeast Branch Library, sketched here, were approved by the City Library Board Friday. The building, a one-story brick and glass structure, will be constructed at 27th and South.

Factory Wages Climb 7 Times More Than Prices

WASHINGTON (INS)—The U.S. Chamber of Commerce said Friday that for the past two years factory pay rates have been climbing more than seven times as fast as prices.

During the first nine months of this year, the Chamber said, the consumers' price index climbed 0.3 per cent while average hourly earnings in manufacturing increased 2.3 per cent.

It said that last year the price index rose 0.8 per cent and average hourly earnings in factories jumped six per cent.

The chamber said that during the past 16 years the price index rose faster than factory employes' wages in only three years. It added that in many of those years "the hourly earnings figures increased two, three, four or more times as rapidly as the price index."

Upsetting The Rules

There is little likelihood when the 84th Congress convenes and is organized with the Democrats taking over control that they will make fullest use of the long experience and commonsense qualities of the "Veep."

For those who have forgotten, the "Veep" is former Vice President Alben Barkley of Kentucky, a seasoned veteran member of Congress with service both in the House and in the Senate, and more important, a man of standing in both parties. It would be too much to expect in the sense of personal sacrifice to ask Minority Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas to step aside now that the Democrats have come back to control of Congress. There is something well expressed which every friend of education will recognize. That particular spark which enables the teacher to illuminate the classroom defies precise definition. ★

Dr. Tate suggested the importance of improving the product of teaching. He deplored colleges which have been endeavoring to teach "everything from cosmos to cosmetics." The time for specialization, he pointed out, comes after the undergradaute experience. "We must stop trying to teach material that an average student can learn better and easier on the job"—an observation which goes to the heart of educational controversy today.

★

Personally we have the feeling that any teaching, which falls far short of enabling the undergraduate to achieve a sound rationalization of life itself, fails in its objectives. Of the hundreds of thousands of young people leaving the campuses of universities and colleges here in this country, it is important if not first that each shall have the capacity to envision a sound philosophy of living, based upon the Christian ideal of usefulness and in the individual sense of selfless service to society. We may talk of sound morals and solid faith, but the acid test comes to the individual in his or her daily application of those ideals. We all have experienced that reverence and affection for individual teachers which carries through the years, and which lights the memories of campus life. We remember them primarily because we recognize that it was their spirit which enriched our own lives. They were the giants, we say, the giants who because they lived and dedicated themselves to teaching left a mark upon our thought and perhaps unknown even to themselves opened new horizons in man's eternal struggle for improvement.

Acceptable Pattern Of Life

We have in mind such a teacher who for years graced the staff of the University of Nebraska. He could be so gentle and so patient and at the same time so filled with the sense of outrage when he discovered an undergraduate not making full use of that undergraduate's abilities. We were called to that teacher's bedside a few hours before he died. What he said then in the knowledge of approaching death seemed to us to be the key to his true greatness as a teacher.

Unpaid Taxes

A glance at the national figures on income tax delinquency carries the conviction that here is a branch of public service that is requiring and probably will get a good looking at in the weeks to come.

The Joint Committe on Internal Revenue Taxation reports that during the first half of 1954 distraint warrants (bills for unpaid taxes) reached 1,433,000, representing $1,163,278,000.

Considering this is a six months report, it looks especially disturbing when matched against earlier 12-month periods. In 1953, for instance, there was only 1,212,000 warrants for $883,494,000. And that was considered a record year. In contrast there were only 846,000 for $528,979,000 in 1950.

Such non-collection could stem from several causes—taxpayers who have suffered unusual reverses and are unable to meet the bill, unrealistic and impractical procedures introduced into the department, or a wrong philosophy of taxation. But not any of those reasons are justifiable and the presence of any one of them merits swift corrective action.

It is a no-good tax system that can collect from some but not others, creating a condition of unjustifiable preference, even if by negative action.

Editorial Of The Day

Bi-Partisan Policy

(From The Washington Post)

President Eisenhower made a good beginning toward co-operation with the forthcoming Congress when he invited Democratic and Republican congresisonal leaders to a White House briefing on foreign affairs on Nov. 17. Sessions of this sort have been held occasionally during the last two years, but with the Democrats in a position to control the next Congress the White House invitation takes on added significance. It is the first positive act toward attainment of the co-operation that officials on both sides have been talking about. The Democratic leaders of the next Congress will undoubtedly respond in a similar spirit.

Foreign affairs are, of course, the field in which pulling together by the executive and legislative branches is at once most urgent and easiest of attainment. Differences between the two major parties on foreign policy are concerned with details and questions of administration rather than with basic issues. The one central policy to which everything else is subordinated—the pursuit of security through solidarity with other nations of the free world—has almost unanimous support in Congress. No doubt the President will take advantage of the Nov. 17 session to explain the new treaties and agreements negotiated at Manila, London and Paris to buttress the anti-aggression systems of which the United States is a part. It is of the utmost importance that the new Senate analyze these in a spirit of non-partisanship with an eye focused solely upon the national welfare.

Dulles Is In Glass House Over Davies

WASHINGTON — Last week, John Foster Dulles called in John Paton Davies, long-time career diplomat, and fired him for bad judgment. Davies' loyalty was not questioned, only his judgment regarding the advice he gave 10 years ago that Chiang Kai-shek should form a coalition government with the Chinese Communists.

In contrast, here are some statements made by the man who fired Davies, also dating back some years:

Dulles on World War II—Speaking in Detroit in 1939, Dulles said: "Only hysteria entertains the idea that Germany, Italy, of Japan contemplates war upon us." (This was after Germany had already taken Austria and Czechoslovakia and just four months before Hitler precipitated World War II).

Dulles on Hiss: On Dec. 23, 1946, Lawrence Davidow, Detroit attorney, wrote Dulles, then chairman of the Carnegie Institute that Alger Hiss has a provable Communist record." Dulles hired Hiss as president of the Carnegie Institute anyway.

Arms to Germany — Dulles in 1926 advocated "unrestricted trade in arms and military supplies and the right of American bankers to make loans for military purposes." (This was when the State Department was trying to curtail loans to Germany and other countries for military purposes.)

German Bonds — In 1930 Dulles stated: "Germany made great progress under the Dawes plan. Her national income and government income have grown to a point where the reparations charge constitutes a readily bearable percentage." (This was when Dulles was the attorney for American bankers floating German loans to the American public. One year later these loans collapsed completely. American bondholders have not yet collected.)

Foreign Aid — In January 1953, Dulles warned France to sign EDC by April 1 or the United States would cut off aid. "The hand-out era is over," Dulles warned publicly. France has not yet ratified EDC, and aid to France is still continuing.

Massive Retaliation — On Jan. 12, 1954, Dulles announced that the United States was prepared to meet aggression with instant retaliation "by means and places of our own choosing." We would "depend primarily upon a great capacity to retaliate instantly," he said. Since then Communist China has taken over the main portions of Indochina and poured more arms into North Korea.

Unrest Behind Curtain — On Aug. 27, 1952, speaking at Buffalo, Dulles promised that Eisenhower would "encourage quiet revolution in Red-dominated countries." In January 1953 he told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that the U.S.A. must use "moral pressure and the weight of propaganda" to weaken Soviet satellites. But on September 18, 1953, he told the UN General Assembly: "our creed does not call for exporting revolution and exciting others to violence."

Geneva Conference — At the conclusion of the Berlin conference last winter, Dulles announced that the problems unsolved at Berlin would be taken up at the Geneva conference which he called "the best hope of the world." The Geneva conference ended in complete failure and complete capitulation to Russia re Indochina.

American Legion Promises — Addressing the Legion in St. Louis, Sept. 2, 1953, Dulles said: "There is a risk that as in Korea, Red China might send its own army into Indochina. The Chinese regime should realize that such a second aggression could not be confined to Indochina." This threat of U. S. intervention apparently meant little. At least the Red Chinese sized it up that way and went right ahead in Indochina.

Trusteeship for Formosa — In April 1953 Dulles told newsmen that the United States would accept a UN trusteeship for Formosa and would accept a truce in Korea at a line drawn across Korea's narrow waist, about 80 miles north of the fighting line. Two days later the White House issued a flat denial. In the end, the White House was right. The United States accepted a Korean truce line far below the narrow waist and has never accepted a UN trusteeship for Formosa.

Neutrals in Korea — During the early talks preparing for a Korean truce in the spring of 1953, Dulles promised President Syngman Rhee that India would not be permitted to sit on the neutral truce commission. In the end, Dulles had to backtrack. India became the most important neutral on the truce commission.

These are some of the mistakes of judgment made by the secretary of state who fired a fellow diplomat for his one error of judgment in regard to a coalition government between Chiang Kai-shek and Communist China.

ARCH DONOVAN

In Step With The Sower

The Sower spent a day at the penitentiary seeking to find the "real criticism" to which the institution is open, according to a report of a special committee named by Crosby. The report was strangely silent on facts to prove the serious allegations.

Arch Donovan

A reporter is early taught that there are sides to every story. As we did not have even one side and could not get the administration side until more specific facts were given by the accusers, our questioning was hit or miss with inquiries aimed at those who seemed to have a spare minute to talk.

Our conclusion: It's better to be on the outside looking in than on the inside looking out.

From both inmates and employees we obtained an estimate that three-fourths of those in the institution, regardless of status, would be willing to sign a petition urging that present administrative officers be retained. The committee urged that a change be made.

A slip of the tongue by one employe, who as a result must be nameless, in his irritation revealed that he reads many of the letters posted at the institution. A long-time friend, he asked that his slip be forgotten and immediately walked away. His knowledge is supposed to be kept secret.

"I have read the charges made in the report many times in recent months and they were always written by two of the most incorrigible inmates in the institution," he explained.

With the exception of the warden and deputy, we encountered no one who had been questioned on conditions by the committee. My questioning did not extend to the "hole."

We did have both inmates and employes beg me to take time to see some of the worthwhile things that are being done. 'We should have a special gate to the 'jail,' as that is all most people seem to be interested in," one remarked. "I wonder how many critics have been curious about their city or county jail. All law violators are not confined here."

One employe urged us to visit other state institutions and observe the work the inmates have done there at substantial savings to the state. "And be sure to ask about their conduct. We're proud of their work and conduct and so are the men," he continued.

Keith Koagland, in charge of handicraft, pridefully pointed to the spare-time activities of scores of inmates who have never been a disciplinary problem. After completing their day's prison chores, he explained, these men work at paying hobbies to help finance families or provide a nestegg when they get out.

He displayed a large array of handmade and tooled pocketbooks and purses which have been put on sale. They buy the finest of leather and get $12 to $22 for the fanciest of bags, he explained. In addition, small purses and billfolds of leather are made and put on sale.

Bead work is the hobby of others and TV lamps are even included in their offerings.

Incongruous among the items made by male hands was a crocheted baby set. Some day we hope to get the story behind the news that caused this prison inmate to learn crocheting.

☆ ☆ ☆

It was pointed out that these behaving and industrious men, who are paying the penalty for violating the laws of society, are now commencing to reap the harvest of a year's work as their handicraft is much in demand at Christmas time.

Chaplain Rudell says scores more are spending every spare minute working on a variety show to be given in the near future for the entertainment of their fellows with possibly a public showing.

Scores of stories were told us of employees who continue to give rehabilitation aid for inmates after they are released. Many times this means financial sacrifice when their sociological diagnosis is wrong. But they keep trying.

In expressing the request that the good as well as the bad be told about both employees and inmates, one exclaimed in the quatrain first published in Kansas:

"There is so much good in the worst of us,
And so much bad in the best of us
That it hardly behooves any of us
To talk about the rest of us."

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

He Will Hide Me

When the storms of life are raging,
Tempests wild on sea and land,
I will seek a place of refuge
In the shadow of God's hand.

Tho' He may send some affliction,
'Twill but make me long for home;
For in love and not in anger,
All His chastenings will come.

Enemies may strive to injure,
Satan all his arts employ;
He will turn what seems to harm me
Into everlasting joy.

So, while here the cross I'm bearing,
Meeting storms and billows wild,
Jesus, for my soul is caring,
Naught can harm His Father's child.

He will hide me, He will hide me,
Where no harm can e'er betide me;
He will hide me, safely hide me
In the shadow of His hand.

Who can measure the spiritual blessing and influence of the thousands of hymns written by the blind singer, Fanny Crosby?

Her matchless gospel songs have been bringing happiness, peace and hope into the lives of men and women around the world for nearly a century. They have won countless souls to Christ and, now and then, they have inspired others to turn their hands to hymn-writing.

Mary Elizabeth Servoss, the author of "He Will Hide Me," was one so inspired. A native of Schenectady, New York, Miss Servoss was a young girl in her teens when Fanny Crosby's first famous hymns were being sung and acclaimed across America. She became deeply interested in the blind singer and in the power of her songs.

Mary Servoss' life, like Fanny Crosby's, was filled with tribulation. Illness of several members of her family called for years of unselfish care and self-sacrifice. So perhaps the young writer was bearing testimony to God's help in her own life when she penned the lines.

Harlan Appointment A Surprise

WASHINGTON — The promotion of John Marshall Harlan from the circuit court to the Supreme Court after only eight months judicial service was a bombshell in Washington but it appears that his parents had his future picked out when they named him.

John Marshall of Virginia is probably the best known chief justice of the United States. He served from 1801 until 1835 during the formative years of the republic and stood up, boldly and astutely, in behalf of the court to the strong-minded men who occupied the White House during those years.

No man contributed more to the elevation of the court in the public mind and to the power it wields as a third and co-equal branch of the government.

The new justice's grandfather was Associate Justice John M. Harlan who also served 34 years on the court, only a few weeks less than Marshall. He entered the court in 1877 and served until 1911, becoming one of the best-known and most-quoted justices of his time.

What gives a peculiar timeliness to the new appointment is that the first Associate Justice John M. Harlan delivered a famous dissent in 1896 when he held that it was unconstitutional to segregate Negroes on railroad trains.

"The constitution is color-blind," the then Justice Harlan wrote in Plessy versus Ferguson. He was overruled by seven of his colleagues on the issue which the present court has now decided in his favor.

The old justice is recalled at the Supreme Court as a tobacco-chewing, whiskey-drinking Kentuckian of courtly manners and liberal views. His grandson is known to most of the present court only slightly. They find him much less picturesque and more conventional but they respect his training and abilities.

Sen. William Langer, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, said frankly no one had even mentioned to him the possibilities that Harlan might go to the high court.

He remembered that Harlan attracted no controversy nor even much attention when he was nominated last spring to the circuit court.

"He seemed to be a very well educated man, quiet and dignified," Langer recalled. "He had unusually good recommendations. He had been a Rhodes scholar and was with one of those eminent firms on Wall Street."

Langer declined to speculate on Senate reaction but there seems little immediate doubt that the new justice will be well received by a Congress in which the partisan political complexion of the court has been much criticized.

President Eisenhower has done what he indicated he would prefer to do which is promote a judge from the lower federal courts. It is true that Harlan's experience has been brief. It is also true that the number of Republicans on the lower courts is relatively small after 20 years of Democratic rule.

Most of the Republican judges are in fact very elderly and their tenure on the high court, if they were appointed, would necessarily be brief. This was considered by the President, no doubt, as he naturally has been anxious to redress the Democratic balance and keep it redressed.

Lesser Evil

DuBois, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This writer wishes to inform M. S. Daily whose letter appeared in this column of Nov. 8 that the reason we Nebraskans support the Republican party is that we are merely trying to accept the lesser of two evils. It may be true that the GOP is giving away oil lands, relieving big business of some taxes and in general trying to bring our economy back to earth. None of this is so distressing as having our boys taken away from us, sent to distant lands to be killed, leaving us oldsters to carry on as best we can, often to the detriment of the land because we do not have the strength to give it the proper care.

As for the depressed price levels of the 1930's — who was to blame for them? The Republican party? Common sense tells us they were not. They were the natural result of our inflated economy brought on by World War I. Hoover tried to bring about a sound economy by refusing to administer that shot in the arm for which we yelled in our pain. Subsequently we kicked him overboard and installed a doctor sympathetic to our misery. But what about our health now? Is it sound? Are we going to maneuver ourselves into more war business?

Considering this is a six months report, it looks especially disturbing when matched against earlier 12-month periods. In 1953, for instance, there was only 1,212,000 warrants for $883,494,000. And that was considered a record year. In contrast there were only 846,000 for $528,979,000 in 1950.

Such non-collection could stem from several causes—taxpayers who have suffered unusual reverses and are unable to meet the bill, unrealistic and impractical procedures introduced into the department, or a wrong philosophy of taxation. But not any of those reasons are justifiable and the presence of any one of them merits swift corrective action.

It is a no-good tax system that can collect from some but not others, creating a condition of unjustifiable preference, even if by negative action.

Editorial Of The Day

Bi-Partisan Policy

(From The Washington Post)

President Eisenhower made a good beginning toward co-operation with the forthcoming Congress when he invited Democratic and Republican congresisonal leaders to a White House briefing on foreign affairs on Nov. 17. Sessions of this sort have been held occasionally during the last two years, but with the Democrats in a position to control the next Congress the White House invitation takes on added significance. It is the first positive act toward attainment of the co-operation that officials on both sides have been talking about. The Democratic leaders of the next Congress will undoubtedly respond in a similar spirit.

Foreign affairs are, of course, the field in which pulling together by the executive and legislative branches is at once most urgent and easiest of attainment. Differences between the two major parties on foreign policy are concerned with details and questions of administration rather than with basic issues. The one central policy to which everything else is subordinated—the pursuit of security through solidarity with other nations of the free world—has almost unanimous support in Congress. No doubt the President will take advantage of the Nov. 17 session to explain the new treaties and agreements negotiated at Manila, London and Paris to buttress the anti-aggression systems of which the United States is a part. It is of the utmost importance that the new Senate analyze these in a spirit of non-partisanship with an eye focused solely upon the national welfare.

Dulles Is In Glass House Over Davies

WASHINGTON — Last week, John Foster Dulles called in John Paton Davies, long-time career diplomat, and fired him for bad judgment. Davies' loyalty was not questioned, only his judgment regarding the advice he gave 10 years ago that Chiang Kai-shek should form a coalition government with the Chinese Communists.

In contrast, here are some statements made by the man who fired Davies, also dating back some years:

Dulles on World War II—Speaking in Detroit in 1939, Dulles said: "Only hysteria entertains the idea that Germany, Italy, of Japan contemplates war upon us." (This was after Germany had already taken Austria and Czechoslovakia and just four months before Hitler precipitated World War II).

Dulles on Hiss: On Dec. 23, 1946, Lawrence Davidow, Detroit attorney, wrote Dulles, then chairman of the Carnegie Institute that Alger Hiss has a provable Communist record." Dulles hired Hiss as president of the Carnegie Institute anyway.

Arms to Germany — Dulles in 1926 advocated "unrestricted trade in arms and military supplies and the right of American bankers to make loans for military purposes." (This was when the State Department was trying to curtail loans to Germany and other countries for military purposes.)

German Bonds — In 1930 Dulles stated: "Germany made great progress under the Dawes plan. Her national income and government income have grown to a point where the reparations charge constitutes a readily bearable percentage." (This was when Dulles was the attorney for American bankers floating German loans to the American public. One year later these loans collapsed completely. American bondholders have not yet collected.)

Foreign Aid — In January 1953, Dulles warned France to sign EDC by April 1 or the United States would cut off aid. "The hand-out era is over," Dulles warned publicly. France has not yet ratified EDC, and aid to France is still continuing.

Massive Retaliation — On Jan. 12, 1954, Dulles announced that the United States was prepared to meet aggression with instant retaliation "by means and places of our own choosing." We would "depend primarily upon a great capacity to retaliate instantly," he said. Since then Communist China has taken over the main portions of Indochina and poured more arms into North Korea.

Unrest Behind Curtain — On Aug. 27, 1952, speaking at Buffalo, Dulles promised that Eisenhower would "encourage quiet revolution in Red-dominated countries." In January 1953 he told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that the U.S.A. must use "moral pressure and the weight of propaganda" to weaken Soviet satellites. But on September 18, 1953, he told the UN General Assembly: "our creed does not call for exporting revolution and exciting others to violence."

Geneva Conference — At the conclusion of the Berlin conference last winter, Dulles announced that the problems unsolved at Berlin would be taken up at the Geneva conference which he called "the best hope of the world." The Geneva conference ended in complete failure and complete capitulation to Russia re Indochina.

American Legion Promises — Addressing the Legion in St. Louis, Sept. 2, 1953, Dulles said: "There is a risk that as in Korea, Red China might send its own army into Indochina. The Chinese regime should realize that such a second aggression could not be confined to Indochina." This threat of U. S. intervention apparently meant little. At least the Red Chinese sized it up that way and went right ahead in Indochina.

Trusteeship for Formosa — In April 1953 Dulles told newsmen that the United States would accept a UN trusteeship for Formosa and would accept a truce in Korea at a line drawn across Korea's narrow waist, about 80 miles north of the fighting line. Two days later the White House issued a flat denial. In the end, the White House was right. The United States accepted a Korean truce line far below the narrow waist and has never accepted a UN trusteeship for Formosa.

Neutrals in Korea — During the early talks preparing for a Korean truce in the spring of 1953, Dulles promised President Syngman Rhee that India would not be permitted to sit on the neutral truce commission. In the end, Dulles had to backtrack. India became the most important neutral on the truce commission.

These are some of the mistakes of judgment made by the secretary of state who fired a fellow diplomat for his one error of judgment in regard to a coalition government between Chiang Kai-shek and Communist China.

THE DIPLOMATIC POUCH

Secretary of Defense Wilson has ordered a complete blackout on all news stories about joint American-Canadian defense plans. Reason for this is not so much security as politics. (Too many Canadians think we are interfering too much with their soverignty.)

ARCH DONOVAN

In Step With The Sower

The Sower spent a day at the penitentiary seeking to find the "real criticism" to which the institution is open, according to a report of a special committee named by Crosby. The report was strangely silent on facts to prove the serious allegations.

Arch Donovan

A reporter is early taught that there are sides to every story. As we did not have even one side and could not get the administration side until more specific facts were given by the accusers, our questioning was hit or miss with inquiries aimed at those who seemed to have a spare minute to talk.

Our conclusion: It's better to be on the outside looking in than on the inside looking out.

From both inmates and employees we obtained an estimate that three-fourths of those in the institution, regardless of status, would be willing to sign a petition urging that present administrative officers be retained. The committee urged that a change be made.

A slip of the tongue by one employe, who as a result must be nameless, in his irritation revealed that he reads many of the letters posted at the institution. A long-time friend, he asked that his slip be forgotten and immediately walked away. His knowledge is supposed to be kept secret.

"I have read the charges made in the report many times in recent months and they were always written by two of the most incorrigible inmates in the institution," he explained.

With the exception of the warden and deputy, we encountered no one who had been questioned on conditions by the committee. My questioning did not extend to the "hole."

We did have both inmates and employes beg me to take time to see some of the worthwhile things that are being done. "We should have a special gate to the 'jail,' as that is all most people seem to be interested in," one remarked. "I wonder how many critics have been curious about their city or county jail. All law violators are not confined here."

One employe urged us to visit other state institutions and observe the work the inmates have done there at substantial savings to the state. "And be sure to ask about their conduct. We're proud of their work and conduct and so are the men," he continued.

Keith Koagland, in charge of handicraft, pridefully pointed to the spare-time activities of scores of inmates who have never been a disciplinary problem. After completing their day's prison chores, he explained, these men work at paying hobbies to help finance families or provide a nestegg when they get out.

He displayed a large array of handmade and tooled pocketbooks and purses which have been put on sale. They buy the finest of leather and get $12 to $22 for the fanciest of bags, he explained. In addition, small purses and billfolds of leather are made and put on sale.

Bead work is the hobby of others and TV lamps are even included in their offerings.

Incongruous among the items made by male hands was a crocheted baby set. Some day we hope to get the story behind the news that caused this prison inmate to learn crocheting.

☆ ☆ ☆

It was pointed out that these behaving and industrious men, who are paying the penalty for violating the laws of society, are now commencing to reap the harvest of a year's work as their handicraft is much in demand at Christmas time.

Chaplain Rudell says scores more are spending every spare minute working on a variety show to be given in the near future for the entertainment of their fellows with possibly a public showing.

Scores of stories were told us of employees who continue to give rehabilitation aid for inmates after they are released. Many times this means financial sacrifice when their sociological diagnosis is wrong. But they keep trying.

In expressing the request that the good as well as the bad be told about both employees and inmates, one exclaimed in the quatrain first published in Kansas:

"There is so much good in the worst of us,
An so much bad in the best of us
That it hardly behooves any of us
To talk about the rest of us."

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

He Will Hide Me

When the storms of life are raging,
Tempests wild on sea and land,
I will seek a place of refuge
In the shadow of God's hand.

Tho' He may send some affliction,
'Twill but make me long for home;
For in love and not in anger,
All His chastenings will come.

Enemies may strive to injure,
Satan all his arts employ;
He will turn what seems to harm me
Into everlasting joy.

So, while here the cross I'm bearing,
Meeting storms and billows wild,
Jesus, for my soul is caring,
Naught can harm His Father's child.

He will hide me, He will hide me,
Where no harm can e'er betide me;
He will hide me, safely hide me
In the shadow of His hand.

Who can measure the spiritual blessing and influence of the thousands of hymns written by the blind singer, Fanny Crosby?

Her matchless gospel songs have been bringing happiness, peace and hope into the lives of men and women around the world for nearly a century. They have won countless souls to Christ and, now and then, they have inspired others to turn their hands to hymn-writing.

Mary Elizabeth Servoss, the author of "He Will Hide Me," was one so inspired. A native of Schenectady, New York, Miss Servoss was a young girl in her teens when Fanny Crosby's first famous hymns were being sung and acclaimed across America. She became deeply interested in the blind singer and in the power of her songs.

Mary Servoss' life, like Fanny Crosby's, was filled with tribulation. Illness of several members of her family called for years of unselfish care and self-sacrifice. So perhaps the young writer was bearing testimony to God's help in her own life when she penned the lines.

Harlan Appointment A Surprise

WASHINGTON — The promotion of John Marshall Harlan from the circuit court to the Supreme Court after only eight months judicial service was a bombshell in Washington but it appears that his parents had his future picked out when they named him.

John Marshall of Virginia is probably the best known chief justice of the United States. He served from 1801 until 1835 during the formative years of the republic and stood up, boldly and astutely, in behalf of the court to the strong-minded men who occupied the White House during those years.

No man contributed more to the elevation of the court in the public mind and to the power it wields as a third and co-equal branch of the government.

The new justice's grandfather was Associate Justice John M. Harlan who also served 34 years on the court, only a few weeks less than Marshall. He entered the court in 1877 and served until 1911, becoming one of the best-known and most-quoted justices of his time.

What gives a peculiar timeliness to the new appointment is that the first Associate Justice John M. Harlan delivered a famous dissent in 1896 when he held that it was unconstitutional to segregate Negroes on railroad trains.

"The constitution is color-blind," the then Justice Harlan wrote in Plessy versus Ferguson. He was overruled by seven of his colleagues on the issue which the present court has now decided in his favor.

The old justice is recalled at the Supreme Court as a tobacco-chewing, whiskey-drinking Kentuckian of courtly manners and liberal views. His grandson is known to most of the present court only slightly. They find him much less picturesque and more conventional but they respect his training and abilities.

Sen. William Langer, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, said frankly no one had even mentioned to him the possibilities that Harlan might go to the high court.

He remembered that Harlan attracted no controversy nor even much attention when he was nominated last spring to the circuit court.

"He seemed to be a very well educated man, quiet and dignified," Langer recalled. "He had unusually good recommendations. He had been a Rhodes scholar and was with one of those eminent firms on Wall Street."

Langer declined to speculate on Senate reaction but there seems little immediate doubt that the new justice will be well received by a Congress in which the partisan political complexion of the court has been much criticized.

President Eisenhower has done what he indicated he would prefer to do which is promote a judge from the lower federal courts. It is true that Harlan's experience has been brief. It is also true that the number of Republicans on the lower courts is relatively small after 20 years of Democratic rule.

Most of the Republican judges are in fact very elderly and their tenure on the high court, if they were appointed, would necessarily be brief. This was considered by the President, no doubt, as he naturally has been anxious to redress the Democratic balance and keep it redressed.

Lesser Evil

DuBois, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This writer wishes to inform M. S. Daily whose letter appeared in this column of Nov. 8 that the reason we Nebraskans support the Republican party is that we are merely trying to accept the lesser of two evils. It may be true that the GOP is giving away oil lands, relieving big business of some taxes and in general trying to bring our economy back to earth. None of this is so distressing as having our boys taken away from us, sent to distant lands to be killed, leaving us oldsters to carry on as best we can, often to the detriment of the land because we do not have the strength to give it the proper care.

As for the depressed price levels of the 1930's — who was to blame for them? The Republican party? Common sense tells us they were not. They were the natural result of our inflated economy brought on by World War I. Hoover tried to bring about a sound economy by refusing to administer that shot in the arm for which we yelled in our pain. Subsequently we kicked him overboard and installed a doctor sympathetic to our misery. But what about our health now? Is it sound? Are we going to maneuver ourselves into more war business?

Into The Fire

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I wish to express special thanks and praise on the recent articles against the sale of these terrible "comic" books. Someone is forever giving my 'teenage girl a copy of one or more of these filthy sex comics. If I can get hold of them first, they go straight into the fire!

Here's hoping more parents will come to realize the harm this so-called literature is doing to our younger generation.

Need Told For Animal Disease Statistics

Stock Sanitary Meeting Ends

OMAHA (AP)—The United States Livestock Sanitary Assn. feels there is a pressing need for nationwide facilities to report the vital statistics of animal and poultry disease.

And the association believes the Agricultural Research Service of the United States Department of Agriculture is the organization to perform the job.

The need for state-by-state and county-by-county data on livestock and poultry diseases was stressed in a resolution adopted at the association convention here.

The association, made up primarily of federal and state regulatory officials in the United States and Canada, ended a three-day meeting Friday.

Research Urged

The resolutions also urged increased research in the field. A spokesman said the 20-billion dollar animal and poultry industry spends only one-tenth of one per cent on research compared with most major industries which put considerably greater shares of their income into research.

The group advocates a national swine disease research center. It probably would be located at Ames, Iowa, where the government already operates research facilities on a smaller scale, a spokesman explained.

The need to tighten up against the importation of foreign cattle and poultry diseases was also emphasized in the association's resolutions.

Heavy Toll

Dr. B. T. Simms, Washington, chief of the animal disease and parasite branch of the Agricultural Research Service, told the convention that animal diseases and parasites cost the American people 2½ billion dollars annually.

Dr. A. H. Quin, Kansas City, president of the American Veterinary Medicine Assn., said that in the last two years two sheep diseases, African blue tongue and scrapie, have appeared in this country for the first time.

Most of the three day meeting has been devoted to technical papers and reports.

The executive committee picked New Orleans for next year's convention.

Workshop Set For Chamber Leaders

Store Sales Maintain 10-Month Lead Over '53

OMAHA (AP)—Although Nebraska department store sales slipped slightly in the week ended Oct. 30, they maintained their 10-month margin over 1953, the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City reported Friday. Sales for the week were down 1 per cent but they remained 3 per cent over 1953 for the Jan. 1-Oct. 30 period.

Need Told For Animal Disease Statistics

Stock Sanitary Meeting Ends

OMAHA (AP)—The United States Livestock Sanitary Assn. feels there is a pressing need for nationwide facilities to report the vital statistics of animal and poultry disease.

And the association believes the Agricultural Research Service of the United States Department of Agriculture is the organization to perform the job.

The need for state-by-state and county-by-county data on livestock and poultry diseases was stressed in a resolution adopted at the association convention here.

The association, made up primarily of federal and state regulatory officials in the United States and Canada, ended a three-day meeting Friday.

Research Urged

The resolutions also urged increased research in the field. A spokesman said the 20-billion dollar animal and poultry industry spends only one-tenth of one per cent on research compared with most major industries which put considerably greater shares of their income into research.

The group advocates a national swine disease research center. It probably would be located at Ames, Iowa, where the government already operates research facilities on a smaller scale, a spokesman explained.

The need to tighten up against the importation of foreign cattle and poultry diseases was also emphasized in the association's resolutions.

Heavy Toll

Dr. B. T. Simms, Washington, chief of the animal disease and parasite branch of the Agricultural Research Service, told the convention that animal diseases and parasites cost the American people 2½ billion dollars annually.

Dr. A. H. Quin, Kansas City, president of the American Veterinary Medicine Assn., said that in the last two years two sheep diseases, African blue tongue and scrapie, have appeared in this country for the first time.

Most of the three day meeting has been devoted to technical papers and reports.

The executive committee picked New Orleans for next year's convention.

Grand Island Leads Retail Sales Hike; Pawnee Tops State's County Increase

Nebraska retail sales in September came the closest to matching last year's sales since April, Business in Nebraska, a monthly bulletin prepared by the University of Nebraska's Department of Research, College of Business Administration, reported.

Plains Fair But Colder

Rain and snow is forecast for North Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin Saturday, while rain is expected in coastal sections of Oregon, Washington and the Gulf Coast region. Aside from these areas, it will be fair to partly cloudy with a colder trend forecast for the eastern states and northern plains. Southerly winds in the central U. S. will account for a warming trend in the southern plains and central Mississippi Valley. (AP Wirephoto Map.)

Tractor Lab Playing Part In Test Code

The Nebraska Tractor Testing Laboratory is playing an important part in development of an International Tractor Testing code. Nebraska has long been recognized for its practial and accurate methods of determining performance dato on tractors.

Three top flight engineers representing the Society of Automotive Engineers visited the Testing Laboratory at the College of Agriculture and consulted with Nebraska Tractor Testing Engineers in the writing of an International test code. Following a study of methods and techniques used in this laboratory, the code was written and submitted to the United Standards Organization.

A fourth member of this commission now on his way to Portugal, to attend an international meeting of the U.S.O., will receive the report by airmail in time to present it to the delegatese from several foreign countries.

The United Standard Organization at the request of the nation's outside the iron curtain, is striving to establish one standard way to test farm tractors. At present, several countries do not recognize the performance test data on imported tractors. This means a second test must be conducted by the purchasing nation.

Pilot Violated Law, Declares State Official

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. — Rush Clarke of North Platte, special attorney for the State Aeronautics Commission, said Friday investigation showed that Howard Pearl, 26, North Platter seriously hurt in a plane crash, was not a registered pilot in Nebraska.

Clarke said Pearl held a student license and was violating the law by carrying a passenger. The attorney added that Pearl would be prosecuted on the licensee charge after he recovers.

Pearl suffered severe head lacerations, a brokene bone in the left foot and severe abdonimal injuries in the crash of a single engined plane near Sarben, Neb., about five miles from Sutherland. Pearl was piloting the plane.

His passenger, Bob Pinkerton of North Platte, was released from a hospital after treatment for superficial injuries.

No Defense Plea Entered In Tax Case

OMAHA (AP)—Clarence M. Stewart, president of a Lincoln truck-firm, Friday pleaded no defense to two of four counts charing him with income tax evasion of about $54,000.

Stewart heads Mack's Transport Service, Inc., an over-the-road firm that hauls new cars in an operation covering several states.

Stewart, who appeared before Federal Judge James A. Donohoe here, entered no defense pleas on counts involving tax payments for 1949 and 1950. Officials said the two counts total about $40,000.

Pleads Innocent

The Lincoln man pleade innocent to the other two counts, which involve income tax payments for 1948 and 1951.

Deputy District Attorney William C. Spire said the financial breakdown on which the charge is based was:

In 1948, $19,171.25 taxes paid when $24,742.35 was owed; 1949, $8,830.71 paid, $18,452.52 owed; 1950, $10,767.98 paid, $19,715.09 owed; 1951, $17,443.37 paid, $47,-427.28 owed.

Stewart was released after posting a $1,000 cash bond with U. S. Commissioner M. O. Cunningham.

Regrading and paving of about eight miles of U.S. Highway 77 south of Beatrice is expected to be completed this week if materials and weather hold out, according to the contractor. State plans call for continuing the resurfacing and widening to the Kansas line later. (Star Staff Photo.)

Sen. Bedford Contemplates 'No Pet Bills'

Lincoln Star Special

GENEVA, Neb.—Mervin V. Bedford, retired Geneva businessman who unseated Dr. C. C. Lillibridge of Crete for the 23rd district Legislative post, says he has "no pet bills" to promote.

Bedford

Friday's official report of the canvassing board shows Bedford won the close race by a slim nine-vote margin.

Bedford received 4,251 votes and Dr. Lillibridge, who served in the Legislature the past three terms, received 4,242.

Absentee ballots in Bedford's home county, Fillmore, gave him an additional 41 votes for a county total of 2,281.

Lillibridge got 1,194 Fillmore County votes, including 17 absentee votes.

In Saline County Dr. Lillibridge ran ahead of Bedford 3,048 to 1,-970, counting 42 absentee votes for Lillibridge and 15 for Bedford.

Some political observers believe a main reason Dr. Lillibridge lost was the desire of Fillmore County residents to have the representative from their county rather than from Saline.

Bedford, who now operates several farms, ran an auto agency and implement company in Geneva for 13 years.

Born in Seward County, he has lived in Fillmore County nearly all his life. He is a graduate of Creighton University.

Bedford belongs to the Methodist Church, Masons, Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce.

He is married and has one daughter, Marymaude, a University of Nebraska senior.

Johnson is serving his second term as a member of the American Institute of Accountants' committee on federal taxation.

170-Year-Old Flag Still In Holiday Use

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP)—An American flag, a bit different from the rest, flew from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barber of Fairbury.

The flag, believed to be at least 170 years old, has 13 stars arranged in rows instead of the circle of the original Betsy Ross flag. It was authorized by Congress in 1777.

In Family Longtime

Barber received the flag from his father, who had obtained it from his father, Samuel Barber, an early settler in Jefferson County.

The flag origially wans 2½ by 4 feet in size, but has been shortened by Mrs. Barber so that a frayed edge could be repaired.

The ancient wool cloth has become fragile with age, but the red stripes apparently are as bright as ever, and the blue field as true as when it was first made. The white stripes, however, are somewhat discolored.

Plains Fair But Colder

Rain and snow is forecast for North Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin Saturday, while rain is expected in coastal sections of Oregon, Washington and the Gulf Coast region. Aside from these areas, it will be fair to partly cloudy with a colder trend forecast for the eastern states and northern plains. Southerly winds in the central U. S. will account for a warming trend in the southern plains and central Mississippi Valley. (AP Wirephoto Map.)

Dr. Nancy Catinia filed the action in District Court against Dr. James Martin, alleging that she was permanently injured by unnecessary surgery.

Dr. Catania, in the petition, said Dr. Martin "carelessly and negligently performed unnecessary extensive surgery on both feet." As a result, she said, toes on both feet are out of alignment.

Tractor Lab Playing Part In Test Code

The Nebraska Tractor Testing Laboratory is playing an important part in development of an International Tractor Testing code. Nebraska has long been recognized for its practial and accurate methods of determining performance dato on tractors.

Three top flight engineers representing the Society of Automotive Engineers visited the Testing Laboratory at the College of Agriculture and consulted with Nebraska Tractor Testing Engineers in the writing of an International test code. Following a study of methods and techniques used in this laboratory, the code was written and submitted to the United Standards Organization.

A fourth member of this commission now on his way to Portugal, to attend an international meeting of the U.S.O., will receive the report by airmail in time to present it to the delegatese from several foreign countries.

The United Standard Organization at the request of the nation's outside the iron curtain, is striving to establish one standard way to test farm tractors. At present, several countries do not recognize the performance test data on imported tractors. This means a second test must be conducted by the purchasing nation.

Clarke said Pearl held a student license and was violating the law by carrying a passenger. The attorney added that Pearl would be prosecuted on the licensee charge after he recovers.

Pearl suffered severe head lacerations, a brokene bone in the left foot and severe abdonimal injuries in the crash of a single engined plane near Sarben, Neb., about five miles from Sutherland. Pearl was piloting the plane.

His passenger, Bob Pinkerton of North Platte, was released from a hospital after treatment for superficial injuries.

No Defense Plea Entered In Tax Case

OMAHA (AP)—Clarence M. Stewart, president of a Lincoln truckfirm, Friday pleaded no defense to two of four counts charing him with income tax evasion of about $54,000.

Stewart heads Mack's Transport Service, Inc., an over-the-road firm that hauls new cars in an operation covering several states.

Stewart, who appeared before Federal Judge James A. Donohoe here, entered no defense pleas on counts involving tax payments for 1949 and 1950. Officials said the two counts total about $40,000.

Pleads Innocent

The Lincoln man pleade innocent to the other two counts, which involve income tax payments for 1948 and 1951.

Deputy District Attorney William C. Spire said the financial breakdown on which the charge is based was:

In 1948, $19,171.25 taxes paid when $24,742.35 was owed; 1949, $8,830.71 paid, $18,452,52 owed; 1950, $10,767.98 paid, $19,715.09 owed; 1951, $17,443.37 paid, $47,-427.28 owed.

Stewart was released after posting a $1,000 cash bond with U. S. Commissioner M. O. Cunningham.

U.S. 77 Work Is Nearing Completion

Regrading and paving of about eight miles of U.S. Highway 77 south of Beatrice is expected to be completed this week if materials and weather hold out, according to the contractor. Here is shown the giant concrete mixing machine as it slowly lays its ribbon of concrete. The road from Beatrice to the eight mile corner west of Blue Springs has been widened, regraded and dotted with new bridges. Sen. Bedford Contemplates 'No Pet Bills'

Lincoln Star Special

GENEVA, Neb.—Mervin V. Bedford, retired Geneva businessman who unseated Dr. C. C. Lillibridge of Crete for the 23rd district Legislative post, says he has "no pet bills" to promote.

Bedford

Friday's official report of the canvassing board shows Bedford won the close race by a slim nine-vote margin.

Bedford received 4,251 votes and Dr. Lillibridge, who served in the Legislature the past three terms, received 4,242.

Absentee ballots in Bedford's home county, Fillmore, gave him an additional 41 votes for a county total of 2,281.

Lillibridge got 1,194 Fillmore County votes, including 17 absentee votes.

In Saline County Dr. Lillibridge ran ahead of Bedford 3,048 to 1,-970, counting 42 absentee votes for Lillibridge and 15 for Bedford.

Some political observers believe a main reason Dr. Lillibridge lost was the desire of Fillmore County residents to have the representative from their county rather than from Saline.

Bedford, who now operates several farms, ran an auto agency and implement company in Geneva for 13 years.

Born in Seward County, he has lived in Fillmore County nearly all his life. He is a graduate of Creighton University.

Bedford belongs to the Methodist Church, Masons, Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce.

He is married and has one daughter, Marymaude, a University of Nebraska senior.

170-Year-Old Flag Still In Holiday Use

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP)—An American flag, a bit different from the rest, flew from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barber of Fairbury.

The flag, believed to be at least 170 years old, has 13 stars arranged in rows instead of the circle of the original Betsy Ross flag. It was authorized by Congress in 1777.

In Family Longtime

Barber received the flag from his father, who had obtained it from his father, Samuel Barber, an early settler in Jefferson County.

The flag origially wans 2½ by 4 feet in size, but has been shortened by Mrs. Barber so that a frayed edge could be repaired.

The ancient wool cloth has become fragile with age, but the red stripes apparently are as bright as ever, and the blue field as true as when it was first made. The white stripes, however, are somewhat discolored.

Dr. Forrest Formally Inaugurated As 12th Nebraska Wesleyan Chancellor

Dr. Aubrey Leland Forrest Friday was inaugurated as the 12th chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University.

The 42-year-old Texan took the vows of a Methodist college president from Nebraska Bishop H. Bascom Watts at formal exercises attended by more than 1,000 persons.

Earlier an academic processional of more than 200 persons garbed in traditional academic regalia led the way to the inaugural hall.

Bradshaw Mintener, assistant secretary of health, education and welfare, was principal inaugural speaker.

Permit 'Knowing'

Waging a strong plea for a system of government and education which permits "knowing or knowledge of truth," Mintener said, "there are few, if any places outside the free world today where the truth is available and there is an opportunity, partial or full, to know, learn or discover the truth."

In responding to his charge, Dr. Forrest traced the history of Nebraska Wesleyan.

'Importance of Living'

"It is to the preparation of young people in the various skills necessary for the making of a living," he said, "while at the same time stressing the importance of living itself, that we devote our effort."

He noted that Weselyan once operated a school of law, offered master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees, and in 1907 even chartered and operated a medical college." Subsequently, Wesleyan began to center its attention upon the liberal arts and the various pre-professional courses, with a lesser amount of work in the vocational and professional fields which grew out of the arts and sciences, Dr. Forrest continued.

"It is to this latter concept of education that this institution is now dedicated," he added.

George A. Knight, president of the Wesleyan board of trustees, presented Dr. Forrest and Dr. Frank A. Court, pastor of St. Paul Methodist Church, presided at the ceremonies.

The Weleyan Chapel Choir, directed by Prof. Oscar Bennett, presented special music. The Rev. Carl Davidson, pastor of First Methodist Church, offered the invocation and benediction.

Church College Must Not 'Indoctrinate'

"The church, through its college, must not attempt to palm off indoctrination in some narrow religious point of view as education," Dr. Gerald McCulloh said.

Dr. McCulloh, chairman of the department of theological education of the national Methodist board of education, was guest speaker at the inaugural convocation honoring Nebraska Wesleyan University chancellor A. Leland Forrest.

"On the other hand," Dr. McCulloh said,, "the exclusion of the basic presuppositions of western culture from acknowledgement and investigation by the educational process is sophisticated blindfolding.

'Under Limitations'

"Public education is under limitations by reasons of legal restrictions upon the presentation of religion as a vital faith by one who is a believer. Only in our church colleges and universities can education take place in total freedom."

Dr. Alva Clark, Omaha clergyman; W. Dale Clark, Omaha layman; and William O. Brown of Tuckahoe, N.Y., Wesleyan student senate president, composed the panel which evaluated Dr. McCulloh's address.

The Rev. C. Edwin Murphy of Scottsbluff, superintendent of the northwest district of the church, presided at the convocation.

Campus Prepares For Life Tomorrow

What happens to the individual on the campus, in the class room, in the laboratory, on the athletic field, in association with the faculty and his fellow students, influence him at the time and prepare him to live on good terms with tomorrow.

This opinion was expressed by Dr. Glenn Randall Phillips, resident bishop of the Denver area of the Methodist Church, at a luncheon celebrating the inauguration of Dr. A. Leland Forrest as chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Dr. Phillips suggested that church colleges aid students to prepare for life in four ways.

The colleges, he said, encourage a wholesome respect for the past, emphasize the necessity of choosing a cause that its worthy, teach that "commitment" must be a key word in facing tomorrows, and reveal that there can be no substitute for character.

Dr. E. Wesley Perry, pastor of First Methodist Church of Omaha, presided at the luncheon.

Representatives of 16 groups conveyed greetings to the new chancellor. They were:

The Wesleyan faculty, Dr. Sam Dahl.
The Wesleyan Student body, William O. Brown.
The Wesleyan Alumni Association, Mr. Warren Parker.
The Association of American Colleges, Dr. Earl Fullbrook.
The Association of Colleges and Universities of the Methodist Church, Nelson P. Horn.
The Nebraska Association of Colleges and Universities, Dr. Frank E. Weyer.
The Methodist Board of Education, Dr. H. Bascom Watts.
The Nebraska Annual Conference, Mr. Niles Barnard.
The Woman's Society of Christian Service, Mrs. A. R. Marquardt.
The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Dr George W. Rosenlof
Michigan State College, Roy Peter Matelski.
The Nebraska Conference Board of Education, The Rev. Larry Davis, chairman.
The Woman's Wesleyan Educational Council, Miss Bernice Halbert.
The American Association of University Women, Fern Hubbard Orme.

Smith

Rev. Carlyon

Ernest Leroy Smith, Lincoln businessman, and the Rev. Richard Ernest Carlyon, Scottsbluff pastor, were awarded honorary degrees by Nebraska Wesleyan University at inaugural ceremonies for Dr. A. Leland Forrest.

Smith, a 1911 Wesleyan graduate, served on the school's board of trustees for many years including an eight-year term as president from 1945 to 1953.

He has been active in civic activities including presidencies of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, the Community Chest and Red Cross and has served on boards of the YMCA, YWCA and banking and trust companies. Now a partner of Magee's store, he was president of the National Retail Clothiers and Furnishers in 1929.

The Rev. Mr. Carlyon was graduated from Omaha Presbyterian Theological Seminary and has studied at Garrett Bible Institute, Evanston, Ill.

He joined the Nebraska Methodist Conference in 1923, had served pastorates at Chambers, Dakota City, South Sioux City, Fullerton, Omaha Trinity Church and Falls City. He was superintendent of the Hastings district for six years before moving to Scottsbluff two years ago.

Dr. Sam Dahl, dean of the college, presented the candidates and Dr. Forrest conferred the degrees.

'Sheppard Confession Expected'

But He Never Did, Cop Says

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police who arrested Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard for the murder of his wife expected a speedy confession once he was behind bars, said a witness Friday. But the confession never came.

This testimony was given by Patrolman Fred F. Drankhan, a handsome, curly haired member of the seven-man Bay Village police force.

He told of a conference July 0 before he arrested Sheppard in the slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn, 31, on July 4.

"The statement was made, wasn't it," Defense Atty. William J. Corrigan asked, "that all you had to do was throw Sam Sheppard in jail away from his brothers and family and he'd confess?"

"I heard something like that," Drenkhan conceded.

"And that he was a dope fiend and that if you put him in jail he'd confess?" Corrigan continued.

The patrolman said he hadn't heard any statement like that then, but thought it was a theory raised later in a letter to police.

Still On Stand

Sheppard is on trial for his life in the slaying of his wife. Drenkhan still was on the witness stand when court recessed for the weekedn.

In a long, gruelling, still uncompleted cross examination, Corrigan attempted to demonstrate as he has before that police picked Sheppard as the murderer of Marilyn last July 4 and then—disregarding any other possibility—set out to convict him.

Speaking of the day of the slaying, Corrigan asked:

"At that time and on that day it was stated to you that Sam Sheppard had committed murder?"

"Yes, that's right," said Drankan, the first policeman on the scene of the murder. He said the statement came from two Cleveland detectives who arrived later.

"And from that day down to this," Corrigan said, "all these investigators have done nothing but try to prove Dr. Sheppard was the murderer."

The state objected and Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin refused to let Drenkhan answer.

Earlier, under direct examination by the state, Drankhan testified he found no sign of a forced entry to the Sheppard home the day of the murder. Nor, he said, did he find any sign of a struggle on the beach outside.

"The beach was smooth—there was no indication anyone had walked on the beach," he testified.

He also said locked screens were on the three windows in the bedroom where Marilyn died.

Dr. Sheppard said a bushy haired prowler killed his wife and knocked him unconscious later on the beach.

'Sheppard Confession Expected'

But He Never Did, Cop Says

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police who arrested Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard for the murder of his wife expected a speedy confession once he was behind bars, said a witness Friday. But the confession never came.

This testimony was given by Patrolman Fred F. Drankhan, a handsome, curly haired member of the seven-man Bay Village police force.

He told of a conference July 0 before he arrested Sheppard in the slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn, 31, on July 4.

"The statement was made, wasn't it," Defense Atty. William J. Corrigan asked, "that all you had to do was throw Sam Sheppard in jail away from his brothers and family and he'd confess?"

"I heard something like that," Drenkhan conceded.

"And that he was a dope fiend and that if you put him in jail he'd confess?" Corrigan continued.

The patrolman said he hadn't heard any statement like that then, but thought it was a theory raised later in a letter to police.

Still On Stand

Sheppard is on trial for his life in the slaying of his wife. Drenkhan still was on the witness stand when court recessed for the weekedn.

In a long, gruelling, still uncompleted cross examination, Corrigan attempted to demonstrate as he has before that police picked Sheppard as the murderer of Marilyn last July 4 and then—disregarding any other possibility—set out to convict him.

Speaking of the day of the slaying, Corrigan asked:

"At that time and on that day it was stated to you that Sam Sheppard had committed murder?"

"Yes, that's right," said Drankhan, the first policeman on the scene of the murder. He said the statement came from two Cleveland detectives who arrived later.

"And from that day down to this," Corrigan said, "all these investigators have done nothing but try to prove Dr. Sheppard was the murderer."

The state objected and Common Pleas Judge Edward Blythin refused to let Drenkhan answer.

Earlier, under direct examination by the state, Drankhan testified he found no sign of a forced entry to the Sheppard home the day of the murder. Nor, he said, did he find any sign of a struggle on the beach outside.

"The beach was smooth—there was no indication anyone had walked on the beach," he testified.

He also said locked screens were on the three windows in the bedroom where Marilyn died.

Dr. Sheppard said a bushy haired prowler killed his wife and knocked him unconscious later on the beach.

Bus Collides With Hog Truck; 5 Slightly Hurt

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—Five persons were slightly injured Friday when a Greyhound bus collided with a semi-trailer truck carrying 17 tons of hogs 10 miles east of here on Highway 30.

None of the five injured, who were among 17 passengers in the bus, were reported serious enough to be hospitalized, but all were under observation.

The bus driver was Jack Siemsen, 22, Scottsbluff. The truck driver was Clarence Garrett, 53, Cheyenne, Wyo.

The Safety Patrol said the accident took place in an area which was foggy at the time and the bus came up from behind the truck. When the bus swerved to the left, it struck the rear of the truck ripping the bus's outside paneling from the door to two seat back.

None of the injured were Nebraskans.

The Truth About Hormones To Make Skin Look Young

As I write this article, I can look through the doorway and see a woman of 45 waiting in the outer office. The light is good. I see her clearly.

She looks 10 years younger today than she did a month ago. What brought about this amazing change? An estrogenic hormone cream.

Reams have been written about hormone creams. Will they make women of 75 look 16 again? Absolutely not! Will they make women of 60 feel like they are 20 again? Only in a way I shall explain later.

To know the truth about hormone creams, you need to learn just two simple facts: 1. The beauty of a woman's skin starts breaking down as signs of menopause begin because the female organs fail to supply enough estrogenic hormones to feed the skin—less and less as you grow older. 2. Estrogenic hormones can be supplied to the skin by rubbing on a cream containing the hormones.

Here is a test reported in a scientific journal, one of many that showed similarly sensational results: Fifty women applied a hormone cream to one side of the face and neck, and to one hand. On the other side and the other hand, a similar cream containing no hormones was applied in the same way.

These are the reported results in simple words:

Skin lines (or wrinkles) quickly dimmed or disappeared from sight as creases and hollows filled out.

Blotches and "old-age freckles" faded on hands, face and neck.

Skin was softer, clearer, seemed to lose its chronic dryness, and take on revived freshness and vitality.

All these amazing things happened on the side where the hormone cream was used. Meanwhile no changes occurred on the other side. The same withered, lifeless complexion!

Still another scientist reports in effect, improvement in the skin of women past menopause was striking. These women looked like the years had been turned back toward their youthful "pre-change" appearance.

I have seen this myself. I have seen the improvement so rapid that in just two days women looked younger. And what a lift to the spirits! I cannot truthfully say that women of 60 felt like they were 20 again. But I have seen the light come back in their eyes—their chins raised with proud confidence—the zest for living return—because—I presume—to look younger is to feel younger.

Now—to select a good estrogenic hormone cream, here is what you need to know: the strength of hormone creams must appear on the label. The recommended strength for the skin is 10,000 International Units per ounce. The cream base should be as rich in lanolin and vegetable oil as possible. You can tell a rich cream by its deep "coffee-cream" color, and by a sort of ropy consistency when you touch the surface with your fingertip, then raise your hand from the cream.

A good buy in hormone creams today is a cream called Hormonex. Its maker is a 31-year-old laboratory that has produced over 80 million packages of pure, fine cosmetics. It contains 30,000 I. U. of natural estrogenic hormones to the jar and 6 per cent pure lanolin. It says so right on the label. What is more this potency is guaranteed. I consider it a bargain at 2.00. If you want to see whether your dreams of a younger looking skin—with wrinkles dimmed, color and texture improved—can come true, I suggest you go right down and get a jar of Hormonex. If you're bad at remembering names as I am, clip this article as a reminder. Get Hormonex. Use it and look for amazing results quickly.

IMPORTANT: The name "Hormonex" has come to mean the exclusive combination of female hormones, lanolin, and organic oils first blended into Hormonex Cream. Several other fine preparations for restoring beauty contain HORMONEX. Each is labeled with its exact hormone strength.

WHAT A MORNING!

WHAT a morning! What a perfectly wonderful morning! The town is filled with guests—and more are coming—the weatherman has promised his best for the entire day—the evening will have a full quota of exciting activity—and on the morrow another football season will have passed into oblivion as far as the home stadium is concerned—but the next two week-ends will hold the interest of Nebraskans, too—From what we hear there will be a general exodus to Norman, Okla., and we suspect that the Nebraska cheering section will have cause for lusty cheers.

* * *

THIS morning we shall begin with some unfinished business—some news we wanted to tell you yesteredayFirst, Mrs. Edwin Foot of Red Wing, Minn., is in town for a week or 10 days visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Joyce, and old Lincoln friends.

During her stay here Mrs. Joyce is making Hotel Cornhusker her headquarters.

* * *

* * *

MENTION of Kansas City reminds us that Miss Kathy Graham is in town—the week-end guest of Miss Kitty Lilly.

* * *

AND yesterday was the day that Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gish arrived from Ft. Snelling, Minn., to spend the week-end as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Day. Mr. and Mrs. Gish also will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, and their daughter, Miss Phyllis Gish, a Delta Gamma pledge on the Nebraska campus.

* * *

IN TOWN for the week-end also are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyer and their family, who have arrived from Hastings and who will be the house guests of Mrs. Boyer's mother, Mrs. George Rokahr.

* * *

AND from Scottsbluff have come Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clarke and their family, who will spend the week-end as the guests of Mr. Clarke's mother, Mrs. Jasper M. Clarke.

* * *

HEARD, too, that Miss Kathryn Tukey of Omaha will be in town for the week-end — the guest of her aunt, Mrs. L. W. Korsmeyer.

* * *

ALSO on the guest list for the week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Koupal and their son, Mark, who have come from Kansas City, Mo., for the homecoming game, and to visit Mr. Koupal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Koupal.

* * *

HOUSEGUESTS at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Sidles this week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmquist of Omaha.

* * *

TOOK a look at next week's calendar and discovered that the Fifty Fifty Club members will be dining and dancing in the Terrace Room at Hotel Lincoln next Tuesday evening. In charge of the party arrangements is a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Koch, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Cane, Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. James Shane, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Mutz, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Carrier.

* * *

SOMEONE told us that Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Faulkner returned home on Saturday after a few days in Chicago where it was business for Mr. Faulkner—and strictly pleasure for the distaff side of the family.

A Guest Foursome

Four very young guests in town at the moment are Mrs. Max Cory and the three young Corys—Bill (left), Max—and the petite Miss Julie. We think we should add that in the above picture are four-fifths of a guest fivesome, for Dr. Cory also is in Lincoln, and all members of the Cory family are the house guests of Mrs. Cory's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wright.

Mrs. Cory and Julie arrived from Sidney earlier this week, and were joined here on Thursday evening by Dr. Cory and his sons who will remain for the week end and accompany the two feminine members of the family back home.

AAUW Interest Groups To Meet

The play-reading group of the Lincoln branch, American Association of University Women, will meet at 7 o'clock Saturday evening for dessert and coffee at the home of Mrs. George H. Rogers, 725 So. 14th.

Announcement also has been made of the meeting of the branch's creative writing group which will be held at 8 o'clock, Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Gerald McCord, 2140 No. 63rd. Each member is asked to bring something she has written to be read to the group, which is open to all AAUW members who are interested.

Visitors In Lincoln

In the picture we find Mrs. J. H. Frey of Scottsbluff, her two daughters, Jo Ann (left), and Joy—and small son, John, who arrived with Mr. Frey for a few days' visit at the home of Mr. Frey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Frey.

The Freys had two events in mind when they planned their visit — the first was the inaugural ceremonies for Chancellor A. Leland Forrest at Nebraska Wesleyan University on Friday — and the second — the homecoming game in the Nebraska stadium today. Mrs. Frey is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan — and Mr. Frey was graduated from the University of Nebraska.

We Hear That

Mrs. J. E. Conklin of Hubbell, president of the Nebraska Council for Better Education, has left for Rapid City, S. D., where she is attending a workshop of the National Citizens Commission for Public Schools for representatives from the midwest region.

Dr. and Mrs. Forrest Honored

Following his inauguration Friday afternoon as the new chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University, Dr. A. Leland Forrest and Mrs. Forrest were honored at a reception for which the members of the Women's Wesleyan Educational Council were hostesses.

WHAT A MORNING!

WHAT a morning! What a perfectly wonderful morning! The town is filled with guests—and more are coming—the weatherman has promised his best for the entire day—the evening will have a full quota of exciting activity—and on the morrow another football season will have passed into oblivion as far as the home stadium is concerned—but the next two week-ends will hold the interest of Nebraskans, too—From what we hear there will be a general exodus to Norman, Okla., and we suspect that the Nebraska cheering section will have cause for lusty cheers.

* * *

THIS morning we shall begin with some unfinished business—some news we wanted to tell you yestereday—First, Mrs. Edwin Foot of Red Wing, Minn., is in town for a week or 10 days visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Joyce, and old Lincoln friends.

During her stay here Mrs. Joyce is making Hotel Cornhusker her headquarters.

* * *

* * *

MENTION of Kansas City reminds us that Miss Kathy Graham is in town—the week-end guest of Miss Kitty Lilly.

* * *

AND yesterday was the day that Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gish arrived from Ft. Snelling, Minn., to spend the week-end as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Day. Mr. and Mrs. Gish also will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, and their daughter, Miss Phyllis Gish, a Delta Gamma pledge on the Nebraska campus.

* * *

IN TOWN for the week-end also are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boyer and their family, who have arrived from Hastings and who will be the house guests of Mrs. Boyer's mother, Mrs. George Rokahr.

* * *

AND from Scottsbluff have come Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clarke and their family, who will spend the week-end as the guests of Mr. Clarke's mother, Mrs. Jasper M. Clarke.

* * *

HEARD, too, that Miss Kathryn Tukey of Omaha will be in town for the week-end — the guest of her aunt, Mrs. L. W. Korsmeyer.

* * *

ALSO on the guest list for the week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Koupal and their son, Mark, who have come from Kansas City, Mo., for the homecoming game, and to visit Mr. Koupal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Koupal.

* * *

HOUSEGUESTS at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Sidles this week-end are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmquist of Omaha.

* * *

TOOK a look at next week's calendar and discovered that the Fifty Fifty Club members will be dining and dancing in the Terrace Room at Hotel Lincoln next Tuesday evening. In charge of the party arrangements is a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Koch, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Cane, Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. James Shane, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Mutz, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Mendes Picks New Cabinet

PARIS (AP) — Maurice Lemaire, a supporter of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, became French minister of housing and reconstruction again Friday night in a Cabinet reshuffle by Premier Pierre Mendes-France. There were no Socialists on the new team.

Rene Billeres of Mendes-France's own Radical Socialist (moderate) party took a subcabinet post, secretary of state in the Premier's office. He will be particularly concerned with civil service matters. Andre-Rene Moynet, 34, got a similar job. He will deal with youth problems. Moynet belongs to the Independent party, a right-of-center grouping.

Philippe Monin, a member of the closely allied Peasant group, will be secretary of state for commerce.

Bigger Plans

The reshuffle was minor, compared with what Mendes-France wanted to do. He would have liked to reinforce his coalition, on the eve of his departure for the United States, by bringing in the Socialists—strongest single party in Parliament.

But the Socialists have been unwilling to join Cabinets for more than three years. They decided yesterday to go on supporting Mendes-France in the National Assembly, but not to go into his Cabinet unless he agreed to a minimum program in advance. This he refused to do.

Meanwhile, French and West German officials met here today in a first attempt to fill in the gaps in last month's agreement to "Europeanize" the Saar.

Jean Soutou, a high-ranking member on the Premier's staff, conferred with Herbert Blankenhorn, West Germany's roving ambassador. French sources said the talks were concerned only with details and that, contrary to reports from Bonn, there was no question of any "interpretative" annexes. The agreement, widely popular in France, has been strongly criticized in West Germany by the opposition Socialists and even by some members of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's ruling coalition.

Our Wages

At the same time, 6,000 French government employes marched through the center of Paris, massed in front of the Finance Ministry, and shouted, "Our wages! Our wages!" They also changed angrily for the resignation of Finance Minister Edgar Faure. The demonstrators were demanding higher salaries saying Mendes-France's recent 1 to 2 per cent wage boost for government workers was too little.

Police reinforcements were called but a heavy rain ended the demonstration.

Marilyn Takes The Rear Exit

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marilyn Monroe left the hospital Friday in an exit that would have been worthy of an Alfred Hitchcock thriller.

Witnesses said the actress sneaked out a back door, peered up and down alleys and then sped off in a waiting car. Her ex-husband, Joe DiMaggio, was not in view.

The former Yankee star visited his wife several times after her minor operation Monday at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital but both have denied any reconciliation attempts.

Her surgery was described as corrective in nature for an undisclosed female ailment.

'Citizen Must Show Interest In Prisons'

Citizens, through civic organizations, must be interested in the cure of sick persons in the prisons. Rabbi Wolfgang Hamburger said in his sermon at South Street Temple Friday night.

"A warden, who has to deal with criminals, must be treated with great sympathy because his job is difficult," he said.

Rabbi Hamburger said the philosophy accepted by most modern institutions is that of Plato—punishment is not for a deed done yesterday but to educate a person to virtue so he may not do it again.

"If the conscience of a healthy and aroused man can ever accord helpful, kind and benevolent assistance to those who suffer," he said, "then our investigation is not a shame to anybody but a blessing to many."

Cotton, Rose Bowl Spots On Block Today

Homecoming Spirit Mirrored By House Decorations

Two of the fraternity and sorority house decorations which drew much attention on the Nebraska U. campus Friday night were Tau Kappa Epsilon's "putty tat" display and Alpha Chi Omega's "Take-'em-for-a-ride" theme. All Nebraska houses lampooned the Pittsburgh Panthers on the eve of the Husker homecoming. (Star Photos.)

Number 16 MU's Only Comfort

Tigers Set For Setback At OU

Lincoln Star Special

COLUMBIA, Mo. —If there's any hoodoo in No. 16, Missouri fans may derive a gram of comfort from the fact that the Tigers will be trying to bite into Oklahoma's 16-game winning streak at Norman today.

Back in 1948, S. M. U's Cotton Bowl champions came to Columbia riding a 16-game victory crest, and were jolted by the Bengals, 20-14.

Only parallel in this situation, really, is the No. 16.

That '48 S. M. U. team, led by Doak Walker and passer Gil Johnson, had finesse but no power; great backs but a so-so line in comparison with the jack-in-the-box Sooner forwards; spirit but none of the fierce go-get-'em attitude characteristic of all Wilkinson-coached clubs. And, too, the game site was Columbia, not Owen Field in Norman where the Sooner marvels have not dropped a conference game since 1942, nor have they permitted Mizzou to come off a winner down there since 1936 when Don Faurot took his first Tiger grid squad into Soonerland.

Analogy Palls

So the analogy palls . . . But Missouri gets its swipe at Oklahome Saturday nevertheless, going into battle with a squad whose senior members fought gamely in that 7-14 loss to O. U. here last year. A possible upset went a-flickering that day as Sooner halfback Larry Grigg barely ticked a fourth-period pass out of Harold Burnine's grasp on the goal-line.

Faurot has nominated two sophomores as starters Saturday—Jimmy Hunter taking over at left half, and hefty Gene Campbell opening at left tackle. Hunter has been back-stopping Ray Dering, junior punter and kickoff specialist, who withdrew from school earlier in the week.

Probable starters:

Oklahoma	Pos.	Missouri
Carl Allison	LE	Jim Jennings
Cal Woodworth	LT	Gene Campbell
Bo Bolinger	LG	Chuch Mehret
Kurt Burris	C	Tony Karakas
Cecil Morris	RG	Jake Shiveley
Edmon Gray	RT	Al Portney
Max Boydston	RE	Jack Hurley
Gene Calame	QB	Vic Eaton
Buddy Leake	LH	Jimmy Hunter
Bob Herndon	RH	Jack Fox

Creighton Edges Boys Town 12-7

By BILL FITZGERALD,
Star Sports Staff Member

OMAHA—Creighton Prep beat Boys Town 12-7 here Friday night on a 40-yard touchdown pass in the last minute as the largest crowd of the prep season was filing out of Creighton Stadium

Quarterback Mike Dugan, Prep's excellent passer, hit Halfback Bob Varley with the long throw which lifted the Junior Jays to their nineteenth straight victory.

Dugan bootlegged to his left behind good blocking. He faded 10 yards to the 40 and threw high to Varley as he raced into the end zone. The quick 155-pound fullback ran behind two Cowboys, took the ball over the shoulder in the deep end zone and crashed into the goal post.

He was badly shaken but held on to the ball and the Jays had the game.

15,000 On Hand

An estimated 15,000 watched Prep go ahead on Dugan's passing in the third quarter after a scoreless first half in which the Boys Town line stopped Prep's running.

Dugan passed to Halfback Don Moran for 25 yards to put Prep on the Boys Town 20 after one minute of the third period. End Jack Kasher caught a pass on the 5 on the next play and beat a Cowboy into the end zone for a 6-0 lead.

Boys Town marched 70 yards on the ground with the kick-off to score and go ahead 7-6. Backs Elmer Vanderpool, Bob Rutledge and George Green cut up the Prep line on end runs and dive bucks over the guards and tackles.

Rutledge went up the middle 14 yards on a trap play for a touchdown and Quarterback Bob Maddux kicked the extra point for the lead.

Boys Town almost scored again in the fourth quarter, but Prep held them on the 18.

A short Boys Town kick to the Prep 38 gave the Junior Jays their last chance with 1:55 left in the game. Dugan threw to end Frank Zitka to the Boys Town 47.

Dugan was roughed on a trap play and Prep got the ball on the Boys Town 30. The Prep quarterback threw twice and missed; then faded and hit Varley with the winning toss.

Varley same back into the game with 40 seconds left and intercepted Maddux's long pass and ice the game for prep.

Outstanding in the strong Boys Town line was End Glenville Hepburn. For Prep Tackle Dick Rynaski played well. Quarterback Maddux of Boys Town passed well but his receivers had slippery fingers.

Boys Town	0	0	7	0	—7
Creighton Prep	0	0	0	6	—12

Boys Town scoring: Touchdown, Rutledge; conversion, Maddux.
Creighton Prep scoring: Touchdowns, Kasher, Varley.

Champion Links Given Tribute By Record Crowd

Students, faculty and parents paid a rousing tribute to Lincoln High's undefeated state champion football team Friday night at the school's annual dinner dance at Cotner Terrace.

It was the largest turnout for a football banquet in the school's history, with more than 330 persons present.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Associated Press trophy, symbolic of the 1954 Links' grid supremacy.

Also on the program were musical numbers by the girls octet and the boys octet. Principal William Bogar served as master of ceremonies.

Brown Bomber Gets Moulin Rouge

Joe Louis Slams Philly Ring Decisions

LOS ANGELES, (INS) — Former world heavyweight champion Joe Louis Friday blamed "bad decisions in Philadelphia" for helping to cause current rumors of hoodlumism in boxing.

The retired "Brown Bomber" hurled the accusation during a news conference in Los Angeles, at which he also revealed he is partner in a swanky, new Las Vegas, Nev., hotel whose doors will be open to people of all races.

Louis declared:

"It's not the fighters so much as the officials that are giving boxing a bad name. People are getting disgusted with bad decisions and most of them seem to come out of Philadelphia."

He had special reference to the recent welterweight battle in Philadelphia in which Kid Gavilan lost his title to Johnny Saxton.

Louis said:

"Gavilan was the winner, but he turned out to be the loser in that one.

"I believe that 99 per cent of the matches made are on the level.

JOE LOUIS

"There's a lot of talk about hoodlums being connected with boxing, but I can't see it any more than in any other sport."

Louis stoutly defended the boxing business as a whole and said:

"I assure you there was nothing crooked about any of my fights."

The press conference gave first word about Louis' interest in the Moulin Rouge, a $3,000,000 hotel being built on the west side of Las Vegas.

200 Rooms

The plush hostelry will have all the features of the famous play spots along the Las Vegas strip —including 200 rooms, a casino and a theater-restaurant.

He feels the Moulin Rouge will be a boon to the 15 million Negroes in the nation because it will be the first major hotel erected to cater to all, irrespective of race.

His associates in the venture are Lou Rubin, a New York restaurateur; Bisno and Bisno, Beverly Hills realtors, and Aaron Bloom, a New York businessman.

Louis himself will spend a minimum of three months a year at the hotel, serving as official greeter.

Plainsman Strategy Fails

Kansas Wesleyan Nips NWU

GEORGE PAYNICH
Star Sports Staff Member

Nebraska Wesleyan's magnificent wrecks, a football team plagued with numerous injuries, seemingly on their way to a final game victory over Kansas Wesleyan University were edged 20-18 at O. N. Magee Memorial Stadium Friday night as some wierd last-quarter strategy went completely haywire for the Plainsmen.

The Plainsmen, thanks to the sparkling play of Cliff Kahl and his legions of battered mates, led by an 18-13 margin with 7:20 left before an attempted quick-kick on third down was blocked and recovered by the visiting Coyotes on the Wesleyan 15. The Plainsmen stiffened but couldn't keep the visitors from hitting paydirt in eight tries.

Sanford Nelson, Plainsmen fullback who was described as through with football due to injuries sustained in last week's debacle at Peru, scored the first Plainsmen touchdown with only 3:32 gone in the opening frame. He carried two Coyotes nine yards even though they were causing further discomfort to his heavily bandaged right leg. VanCleave's kick was no good.

The visitors knotted the score at 6-6 late in the same period on a beautiful 44-yard scoring pass play from Bob Harris to end Orville Forsbeck. Forsbeck went down and out, took the pass behind the Wesleyan defenders and ran the remaining 20 yards to score. Dale Emig's kick was wide.

NWU Rallies

The Plainsmen forged back into the lead with approximately five minutes of play gone in the second period as quarterback Charles Ege went over on a sneak. The Wesleyan march covered 49 yards with the big gainer being a 23-yard pass from Ege to Kahl. An offside against Kansas Wesleyan put the ball on the one from where Ege scored. VanCleave's kick was again wide.

Gerald Toburen, Coyote back, was the only instrument the visitors needed for their second touchdown. After Ege had kicked to the 50 yard line Toburen carried the ball six straight times to cover the necessary territory. Thomas Taylor's extra point placement made it 13-12 Kansas Wesleyan with 52 seconds left in the half.

After some halftime ceremonies honoring new NWU Chancellor Leland Forrest, the Plainsmen grabbed the lead on one quick scoring play. Cliff Kahl, displaying some of the pre-season form expected of him, took a pitchout, used a stiff arm to elude the first defender and then with big Paul Fredstrom as a personal escort went 60 yards for the score. Van Cleave attempted to cross up the opposition on a PAT pass attempt but this failed and the Plainsmen were in front 18-13.

Almost

The speedy Kahl, who ran for 106 yards in 8 carries, then almost broke the game wide open on a pass interception play. He picked up a stray Coyote aerial and went 25 yards to the Kansas 40-yard line before being hauled down from behind. The Plainsmen marched to the 19 before the drive lost momentum.

Kahl brought the crowd to its feet moments later with another sparkling run of 42 yards on a punt return. Behind some of the most effective Plainsmen blocking of the season, particularly those by Paul Fredstrom and Nelson, Kahl returned to the visitors' 48 before being stopped.

However, after a Coyote punt had put the ball deep in Plainsman territory the crucial play of the game occurred. The above mentioned blocked quick-kick spelled doom to a courageous bunch of banged-up Plainsmen.

Ege filled the air with some last-second passes but the Plainsmen yielded with 12 seconds left to end a somewhat disappointing season with a 3-6-1 mark.

Outstanding for Nebraska Wesleyan were Fredstrom and Thompson in the line while Nelson and Kahl shone in their ball-carrying duties.

Toburen and Taylor looked good in the visitors' running game while quarterback Robert Harris utilized his publicized passing arm to good advantage.

Ohio State, Arkansas Could Gain Clear Titles

By JOHN CHANDLER
The Associated Press

The long college football season draws closer to the end Saturday with a lot of unfinished business before the New Year's Day Bowls are filled and all conference races are settled.

Major games are on tap from coast to coast, and there is a possibility a couple of bowl teams will be known before the sun sets Saturday evening.

Two teams leading the bowl scramble at the moment are Arkansas and Ohio State, and they have a couple of toughies barring the way. Ohio State, with an eye on the Pasadena Rose Bowl, plays upset-minded Purdue at Lafayette, Ind.

SMU Calls On Arkansas

Southern Methodist invades Fayetteville, Ark., to meet the Razorbacks who are leading the Southwest Conference race. All Arkansas needs is a tie to clinch a berth in the Jan. 1 Cotton Bowl scrap at Dallas.

Ohio State, No. 2 team in the country, could clinch the Big Ten title by beating Purdue, and with the aid of two big "ifs." Iowa would have to defeat Minnesota at Minneapolis, with Michigan State taming Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Purdue hung the only loss on Notre Dame this year, 27-14, and could gum up the Big Ten works by taking unbeaten Ohio State, especially if Michigan and Minnesota should win. Each of the latter has lost one conference game.

In Major Clashes:

In other major clashes, Oklahoma plays Missouri, North Carolina tackles Notre Dame, Georgia Tech has Alabama, Auburn meets Georgia, Southern California plays Washington, Mississippi is at Houston Friday night while Navy and Army tune up for their big Nov. 27 clash by taking on Columbia and Pennsylvania, respectively.

UCLA, the No. 1 team, has an open date this week awaiting its game with Southern California next Saturday. Southern California looms as the Pacific Coast entrant in the Rose Bowl regardless, since UCLA played there last time and can't go twice in a row.

Georgia Must Top Auburn

Georgia, unbeaten but once tied in the Southeastern Conference, must get past Auburn and then Georgia Tech next week to have clear sailing into the New Orleans Sugar Bowl, which is not tied to any conference.

The Big Seven situation still is obscure. The conference says Oklahoma, the likely champion again, can't repeat in the Miami Orange Bowl. But that won't prevent the Sooners from knocking Missouri cold, which would leave the way open for Kansas State or Nebraska.

The other Orange Bow representative comes from the Atlantic Coast Conference, currently led by Maryland and Duke. Last Jan. 1 Maryland played at Miami, and the conference selects the best representative team.

As for the moss-covered traditionals, Yale and Princeton have their 77th meeting. Yale victories today and over Harvard next week would give the Bulldogs the Ivy League crown, regardless of what happens between Harvard-Brown and Cornell-Dartmouth.

Other major games today:

Students At Omaha U. Celebrate

. . . First Perfect Year

OMAHA (AP)—University of Omaha had a holiday from classes Friday, but students congregated on the campus in droves as talk of a possible Tangerine Bowl football bid reached a high pitch.

The holiday was declared by President Milo Bail after the university completed its first undefeated football season in history Thursday with a 57-2 victory over Doane College of nearby Crete.

University officials said last week they had received "feelers" regarding a possible bid to the Orlando, Fla., Bowl New Year's Day.

Students visiting the campus found the university cafeteria offering tangerine juice as well as tangerine sherbet. Students even "built" a tangerine tree.

Robert McGrannahan, the university's publicity man, learned that the demand for tangerines was more than the supply and suddenly had to send out for more.

"They're out of season," he said. "So they're a little hard to get. Cost $2.50 for 10 pounds, but who cares?"

Emporia Will Meet Hastings In Bowl Tilt

College of Emporia, Kan., football team members voted unanimously to accept an invitation to meet Hastings College in the Mineral Bowl Thanksgiving Day, it was learned Friday.

The Presbies, who completed an 8-0-1 season by blasting Northwestern, Okla., 61-19, Thursday, are led by Fullback Lemuel Harkey, a 200-pound senior who scored 103 points in seven games.

The Kansans have protested the 20-20 tie with Kansas Wesleyan, claiming that Kansas Wesleyan used an ineligible player to kick the tying point.

A ruling is scheduled to be handed down at the Kansas Conference meeting in Topeka, Nov. 20.

Thursday College of Emporia completed its third unbeaten season in four years and has played 17 games without a defeat. Coach of the Presbies is Wayne McConnell, former Manhattan, Kan., High School mentor.

Number 16 MU's Only Comfort

Tigers Set For Setback At OU

Lincoln Star Special

COLUMBIA, Mo. —If there's any hoodoo in No. 16, Missouri fans may derive a gram of comfort from the fact that the Tigers will be trying to bite into Oklahoma's 16-game winning streak at Norman today.

Back in 1948, S. M. U's Cotton Bowl champions came to Columbia riding a 16-game victory crest, and were jolted by the Bengals, 20-14.

Only parallel in this situation, really, is the No. 16.

That '48 S. M. U. team, led by Doak Walker and passer Gil Johnson, had finesse but no power; great backs but a so-so line in comparison with the jack-in-the-box Sooner forwards; spirit but none of the fierce go-get-'em attitude characteristic of all Wilkinson-coached clubs. And, too, the game site was Columbia, not Owen Field in Norman where the Sooner marvels have not dropped a conference game since 1942, nor have they permitted Mizzou to come off a winner down there since 1936 when Don Faurot took his first Tiger grid squad into Soonerland.

Analogy Palls

So the analogy palls . . . But Missouri gets its swipe at Oklahome Saturday nevertheless, going into battle with a squad whose senior members fought gamely in that 7-14 loss to O. U. here last year. A possible upset went a-flickering that day as Sooner halfback Larry Grigg barely ticked a fourth-period pass out of Harold Burnine's grasp on the goal-line.

Faurot has nominated two sophomores as starters Saturday—Jimmy Hunter taking over at left half, and hefty Gene Campbell opening at left tackle. Hunter has been back-stopping Ray Dering, junior punter and kickoff specialist, who withdrew from school earlier in the week.

Probable starters:

Oklahoma	Pos.	Missouri

Cal Woodworth	LT	Gene Campbell
Bo Bolinger	LG	Chuch Mehrer

Creighton Edges Boys Town 12-7

By BILL FITZGERALD
Star Sports Staff Member

OMAHA—Creighton Prep beat Boys Town 12-7 here Friday night on a 40-yard touchdown pass in the last minute as the largest crowd of the prep season was filing out of Creighton Stadium

Quarterback Mike Dugan, Prep's excellent passer, hit Halfback Bob Varley with the long throw which lifted the Junior Jays to their nineteenth straight victory.

Dugan bootlegged to his left behind good blocking. He faded 10 yards to the 40 and threw high to Varley as he raced into the end zone. The quick 155-pound fullback ran behind two Cowboys, took the ball over the shoulder in the deep end zone and crashed into the goal post.

He was badly shaken but held on to the ball and the Jays had the game.

15,000 On Hand

An estimated 15,000 watched Prep go ahead on Dugan's passing in the third quarter after a scoreless first half in which the Boys Town line stopped Prep's running.

Dugan passed to Halfback Don Moran for 25 yards to put Prep on the Boys Town 20 after one minute of the third period. End Jack Kasher caught a pass on the 5 on the next play and beat a Cowboy into the end zone for a 6-0 lead.

Boys Town marched 70 yards on the ground with the kick-off to score and go ahead 7-6. Backs Elmer Vanderpool, Bob Rutledge and George Green cut up the Prep line on end runs and dive bucks over the guards and tackles.

Rutledge went up the middle 14 yards on a trap play for a touchdown and Quarterback Bob Maddux kicked the extra point for the lead.

Boys Town almost scored again in the fourth quarter, but Prep held them on the 18.

A short Boys Town kick to the Prep 38 gave the Junior Jays their last chance with 1:55 left in the game. Dugan threw to end Frank Zitka to the Boys Town 47.

Dugan was roughed on a trap play and Prep got the ball on the Boys Town 30. The Prep quarterback threw twice and missed; then faded and hit Varley with the winning toss.

Varley same back into the game with 40 seconds left and intercepted Maddux's long pass and ice the game for prep.

Outstanding in the strong Boys Town line was End Glenville Hepburn. For Prep Tackle Dick Rynaski played well. Quarterback Maddux of Boys Town passed well but his receivers had slippery fingers.

Champion Links Given Tribute By Record Crowd

Students, faculty and parents paid a rousing tribute to Lincoln High's undefeated state champion football team Friday night at the school's annual dinner dance at Cotner Terrace.

It was the largest turnout for a football banquet in the school's history, with more than 330 persons present.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Associated Press trophy, symbolic of the 1954 Links' grid supremacy.

Also on the program were musical numbers by the girls octet and the boys octet. Principal William Bogar served as master of ceremonies.

Plainsman Strategy Fails

Kansas Wesleyan Nips NWU

GEORGE PAYNICH
Star Sports Staff Member

Nebraska Wesleyan's magnificent wrecks, a football team plagued with numerous injuries, seemingly on their way to a final game victory over Kansas Wesleyan University were edged 20-18 at O. N. Magee Memorial Stadium Friday night as some wierd last-quarter strategy went completely haywire for the Plainsmen.

The Plainsmen, thanks to the sparkling play of Cliff Kahl and his legions of battered mates, led by an 18-13 margin with 7:20 left before an attempted quick-kick on third down was blocked and recovered by the visiting Coyotes on the Wesleyan 15. The Plainsmen stiffened but couldn't keep the visitors from hitting paydirt in eight tries.

Sanford Nelson, Plainsmen fullback who was described as through with football due to injuries sustained in last week's debacle at Peru, scored the first Plainsmen touchdown with only 3:32 gone in the opening frame. He carried two Coyotes nine yards even though they were causing further discomfort to his heavily bandaged right leg. VanCleave's kick was no good.

The wisitors knotted the score at 6-6 late in the same period on a beautiful 44-yard scoring pass play from Bob Harris to end Orville Forsbeck. Forsbeck went down and out, took the pass behind the Wesleyan defenders and ran the remaining 20 yards to score. Dale Emig's kick was wide.

NWU Rallies

The Plainsmen forged back into the lead with approximately five minutes of play gone in the second period as quarterback Charles Ege went over on a sneak. The Wesleyan march covered 49 yards with the big gainer being a 23-yard pass from Ege to Kahl. An offside against Kansas Wesleyan put the ball on the one from where Ege scored. VanCleave's kick was again wide.

Gerald Toburen, Coyote back, was the only instrument the visitors needed for their second touchdown. After Ege had kicked to the 50 yard line Toburen carried the ball six straight times to cover the necessary territory. Thomas Taylor's extra point placement made it 13-12 Kansas Wesleyan with 52 seconds left in the half.

After some halftime ceremonies honoring new NWU Chancellor Leland Forrest, the Plainsmen grabbed the lead on one quick scoring play. Cliff Kahl, displaying some of the pre-season form expected of him, took a pitchout, used a stiff arm to elude the first defender and then with big Paul Fredstrom as a personal escort went 60 yards for the score. Van Cleave attempted to cross up the opposition on a PAT pass attempt but this failed and the Plainsmen were in front 18-13.

Almost

The speedy Kahl, who ran for 106 yards in 8 carries, then almost broke the game wide open on a pass interception play. He picked up a stray Coyote aerial and went 25 yards to the Kansas 40-yard line before being hauled down from behind. The Plainsmen marched to the 19 before the drive lost momentum.

Kahl brought the crowd to its feet moments later with another sparkling run of 42 yards on a punt return. Behind some of the most effective Plainsmen blocking of the season, particularly those by Paul Fredstrom and Nelson, Kahl returned to the visitors' 48 before being stopped.

However, after a Coyote punt had put the ball deep in Plainsman territory the crucial play of the game occurred. The above mentioned blocked quick-kick spelled doom to a courageous bunch of banged-up Plainsmen.

Ege filled the air with some last-second passes but the Plainsmen yielded with 12 seconds left to end a somewhat disappointing season with a 3-6-1 mark.

Outstanding for Nebraska Wesleyan were Fredstrom and Thompson in the line while Nelson and Kahl shone in their ball-carrying duties.

Toburen and Taylor looked good in the visitors' running game while quarterback Robert Harris utilized his publicized passing arm to good advantage.

Brown Bomber Gets Moulin Rouge

Joe Louis Slams Philly Ring Decisions

LOS ANGELES, (INS) — Former world heavyweight champion Joe Louis Friday blamed "bad decisions in Philadelphia" for helping to cause current rumors of hoodlumism in boxing.

The retired "Brown Bomber" hurled the accusation during a news conference in Los Angeles, at which he also revealed he is partner in a swanky, new Las Vegas, Nev., hotel whose doors will be open to people of all races.

Louis declared:

"It's not the fighters so much as the officials that are giving boxing a bad name. People are getting disgusted with bad decisions and most of them seem to come out of Philadelphia."

He had special reference to the recent welterweight battle in Philadelphia in which Kid Gavilan lost his title to Johnny Saxton.

Louis said:

"Gavilan was the winner, but he turned out to be the loser in that one.

"I believe that 99 per cent of the matches made are on the level.

JOE LOUIS

"There's a lot of talk about hoodlums being connected with boxing, but I can't see it any more than in any other sport."

Louis stoutly defended the boxing business as a whole and said: "I assure you there was nothing crooked about any of my fights."

The press conference gave first word about Louis' interest in the Moulin Rouge, a $3,000,000 hotel being built on the west side of Las Vegas.

200 Rooms

The plush hostelry will have all the features of the famous play spots along the Las Vegas strip —including 200 rooms, a casino and a theater-restaurant.

He feels the Moulin Rouge will be a boon to the 15 million Negroes in the nation because it will be the first major hotel erected to cater to all, irrespective of race.

His associates in the venture are Lou Rubin, a New York restaurateur; Bisno and Bisno, Beverly Hills realtors, and Aaron Bloom, a New York businessman.

Louis himself will spend a minimum of three months a year at the hotel, serving as official greeter.

Tech Hopes To Improve Bowl Stock

ATLANTA (AP)— Georgia Tech hopes to improve its bowl stock today when Coach Bobby Dodd's Yellow Jackets meet Alabama in the NCAA's nationally televised football Game of the Week.

Tech has been in a bowl the past three New Year's days.

Tech has lost three games this season—but by a total of only nine points. Florida and Duke scored one-point victories over Tech and Kentucky beat the Jackets 13-6.

The 'Bama-Tech rivalry is one of the oldest and keenest in the nation and past records mean little when these Southeastern Conference foes collide.

4-2-2 Mark

Alabama has won 4, lost 2 and tied 2 and is the nation's top defensive team but Coach Red Drew is worried about several regulars whose injuries may weaken the Crimson Tide's defense. Tackle Ed Culpepper, end Gene Donaldson and guard Jeff Moorer are on the sick list and won't be at top form if they get to play.

Both teams have fine quarterbacks and flashy ball carriers. Junior Bart Starr will direct 'Bama's split-T attack. Starr is a fine ball handler and a brilliant passer. Sophomore Wade Mitchell handles Tech's straight-T.

Halfbacks Corky Tarp, Bobby Luna and Cecil Ingram and fullback Bill Stone give the Tide a dangerous running attack. Tech's top ball carriers are Paul Roenberry, Johnny Menger and Jimmy Thompson, a trio of sophomore halfbacks, and fullback George Humphreys.

Tackle George Mason and guard Harry Lee anchor a rugged 'Bama line. Captain Larry Morris, a center, and guard Franklin Brooks are Tech line stars.

NWU Band Reviews Life Of Chancellor

The Nebraska Wesleyan University marching band wound up its series of halftime football shows Friday night with a surprise salute to newly inaugurated Chancellor and Mrs. A. Leland Forrest Friday night.

Basing the show on a "This is your Life," theme, Prof. Robert Marshall led the 80-piece organization through a full 15 minute show which took the Wesleyan Chancellor from the cradle up to the present moment.

As the band unwound across the playing field playing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," Superior Junior Lew Hunter began to read from a huge yellow and brown book, and asked that Dr. Forrest be ushered onto the playing field. As the band formed a cradle, Hunter informed the crowd that Dr. Forrest was born in the Lone Star state and the crowd responded with an enmasse serenade to "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

Mrs. Forrest was escorted to the field and presented a bouquet of roses as the band formed a church and played the "Wedding March."

Various appropriate formations and music illustrated the earning of A.B., M. A. and Ph. D. degrees at three different schools and the various professional aspects of Dr. Forrest's life as a college teacher and administrator.

As a final gesture the band formed a huge "CHAN" across the field and made Dr. Forrest an honorary member of the band.

Four members of the band are seniors and were introduced to the crowd. They are Louise Stone, Sullivan, Mo.; Jeannie Lindstrom, Geneva; Larry Abker, Geneva; and Frank Mills, Murdock.

College Gridders Are Congratulated

State legislators Friday signed telegrams congratulating Hastings College and Omaha University on the showing made by their football teams this fall.

The Hastings eleven is scheduled to play in the Mineral Bowl game at Excelsior Springs, Mo., on Thanksgiving.

Omaha is considered a likely choice for one of the spots in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla., on New Year's.

Buffalos Test Utah In 51st Meeting Of Series

BOULDER, Colo.—Winless in their last three starts after breezing through five straight opening opponents, Colorado's Buffalos turn to one of their oldest rivals today in an attempt to get back on the win path.

The Buffs will journey to Salt Lake City for their 51st meeting with Utah in a series which has always stood out as one of the Rocky Mountain region's finest. Colorado has won 25, Utah 22 and three games have ended in a tie in the ancient series which began in 1903.

Despite a so-so 3-5 record thus far, Coach Jack Curtice's Redskins will have a formidable ambush ready for the Buffs Saturday. Salt Lake City appearances are always tough for Colorado grid teams. Ward has taken clubs over the mountains three times and returned only once with a triumph—and that one a hard-fought 20 - 14 verdict over an underdog Ute crew two years ago.

In 1948, Ward's first year at Colorado, the Buffs hit Ute Bowl fresh from a 51 - 7 defeat of Kansas State and were promptly scalped, 32 - 14. Two years later the Buffs, with a 28-19 win over a highly-favored Nebraska team fresh in their memory, barely escaped with a 20 - 20 tie.

Curtice, whose winged-T offense is one of the best, has a typical club this fall—one which has given all foes trouble but which has fallen three times by one point. But the Utes own wins over Oregon and Wyoming—two formidable clubs.

The Redskins field a beefy, all-veteran line spearheaded by Tackle Don Henderson and Guard Lynn Simons — two of the Skyline league's best.

Quarterback Dave Dungan is continuing the Curtice tradition of fine passing T-operators. Dungan is currently the nation's 14th ranking passer and has a 55.7 per cent completion record, hitting 44 of 79 tries for 525 yards.

Halfback Herb Nakken, the nation's 18th best rusher with 546 yards in 107 carries, and Fullback Lou Mele, a real handy gent who can run, pass, punt, kick off and convert, are leading lights in the Utah backfield.

The probable starters:

Colorado		Utah
Les Lotz	LE	Orville Nellestein
Tom Gick	LT	Don Henderson
Dick Stapp	LG	Lynn Simons
Dick Freund	C	Carl Porlaien
Dave Jones	RG	Tommy Thompson
Sam Salerno	RT	Donnie Barr
Wally Merz	RE	Dave Germann
Sam Maphis	QB	Dave Dungan
Carroll Hardy	LH	Max Pierce
Frank Bernardi	RH	Herb Nakken
John Bayuk	FB	Lou Mele

Oakland Cops Husker Crown

OAKLAND—Oakland won the Husker Conference championship here Friday night, defeating Stanton, 32-0, before a record crowd of more than 2,500 persons.

The Vikings completely dominated play, limiting Stanton to only three first downs, and scoring in every quarter.

Bob Holmes opened the TD parade when he blocked a Stanton punt and Teammate Dale Hansen pounced on the ball in the end zone for a first quarter tally.

Gerald Grone and Pat Fischer, young brother of Coach Kenny Fischer, gave the victors a 19-0 halftime margin with runs of 55 and 15 yards respectively in the second.

In the third quarter, Lonnie Johnson took a pass from Frank Stanton and scored on a 59-yard play. Fischer added the final score in the fourth, taking a 25-yard pass from Johnson.

Tackle Charles Baltzell and Guard Bruce Carlson led the Viking line with their smashing defensive play.

Oakland	6	13	6	7—32

Oakland scoring: Touchdowns Hansen, Grone, Fischer 2, Johnson. Conversions, Grone (plunge) and Johnson (pass).

Mitri Will Defend

MILAN (AP)— European middleweight champion Tiberio Mitri of Italy will defend his title here tonight against Charles Humez of France in a 15-round bout.

Promoter Jack Solomons of London, who is staging the show, said the winner will challenge Bobo Olson of San Francisco for the world title.

"There's been talk of a non-title match for the winner against Olson," Solomons said, "but that's out. The fight definitely will be for the title."

Bears Head Negotiates In Chicago

DENVER (AP) — The Rocky Mountain News said Friday night that Bob Howsam, president and general manager of the Denver Bears, was in Chicago Friday negotiating to get Denver a berth in the American Baseball Assn.

Howsam, who was registered at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, conferred with Parke Carroll, general manager of the New York Yankees' Kansas City team, the News said. Moving of the Philadelphia Athletics of the American League to Kansas City will shift the American Assn. team there to another city. Denver is a member of the Class-A Western League.

The News said Howsam refused to accept telephone calls and added that "Howsam's conversation with Carroll is not a matter of record, but, of necessity, had to revolve around three possibilities.

"The first would find the Yankees buying out the (Denver) Bears completely, ball club and stadium. The second would have the Yankees buying the club and leasing the stadium from Howsam and the third would leave Howsam and his associates running the club in the association with a strict working agreement with the Yankees."

Omaha's Drive To Get AA Continues

OMAHA (AP)—Omaha's drive to land a team in the American Association continued Friday with a steady flow of telegrams and letters going to key figures involved in finding a site for the displaced Kansas City Blues.

Hundreds of other letters were piling up in Mayor John Rosenblatt's office awaiting transport to Chicago where they'll be shown to Association officials at their annual meeting Tuesday.

"We have heard from all of the parties concerned, either directly or indirectly," said Chairman Al Sorensen of the Citizens' Committee and "they admit being impressed and surprised by the flood of messages from Omaha.

CV Pep Club Host To Football Team

The College View High pep club played host to the Viewman football squad Friday night at the school in the annual post-season chili feed.

The pep club, under the leadership of Mary White, served gallons of chili, crackers, carrots, celery, cokes and cake to the squad and provided entertainment in a "Truth Or Consequences" motif.

College View players, peppers, coaches and guests consumed chili made from 50 pounds of meat, 16 packages of chili seasoning, 15 chili bricks, 25 onions, 15 cloves of garlic, two cases of tomato juice and 15 lbs. of beans.

Guests of honor were the five senior football players on the squad — Dave Paulson, Lowell Ham, Glenn Hoy, Gene Reed and Lynn Hatcher. Following the feed, a dance was held in the auditorium.

Irish Trying To Claw Back

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)— Once-nicked Notre Dame, for five weeks trying to claw back to its pre-season ranking as the nation's No. 1 football team, is a four-touchdown favorite over chipper North Carolina here today.

That favoritism seems over heavy in view of North Carolina's upset last Saturday of South Carolina, Army's only conqueror this season, and Notre Dame's injury loss of iron-man, Dick Szymanski.

At any rate, the Tar Heels (3-3-1) will have hunger riding on their side as they essay an upset which would mark their first victory in a six-game series running consecutively since 1949.

Both the Irish and Tar Heels feature the split-T attack, but while North Carolina alternates two teams, Notre Dame has had eight performers who have averaged 44 minutes per game.

Leading Irish endurable was Szymanski who averaged 48 minutes, including last Saturday's Penn game in which he suffered a ruptured spleen. He is out for the season now. Jim Mense, unseasoned junior, probably will start in Szymanski's place.

Like Notre Dame, North Carolina has had to shift personnel because of injuries. The Tar Heels are banking heavily on 213-pound Don Klochak, sophomore fullback, to batter the Irish as effectively as he did South Carolina last week when he averaged better than 10 yards per carry.

Now fifth-rated in the Associated Press weekly poll, Notre Dame has been just one of the "Big Ten" pack since its 27-14 loss to Purdue on Oct. 2.

Hector Constance Stops Tiger Jones

NEW YORK (AP)—Shifty Hector Constance of Trinidad ran his modest unbeaten streak in the United States to three Friday night by gaining a close and split decision over favored Ralph Tiger Jones of Yonkers, N. Y., in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Jones outweighed Constant, 161 to 153.

An 8-5 underdog, the rangy, fleet-footed West Indian won the votes of referee Al Berl and Arthur Susskind by 6 rounds to 4. Judge Frank Forbes had it a draw, 5 rounds and 6 points for each. The Associated Press had Constance in front, 6-3-1.

The slim crowd constantly applauded the interesting, almost clinch-free fight although there were no knockdowns and neither punched very hard. Constance, 26, threw more punches and landed more often than his heavier rival who appeared very sluggish at 161.

Jones Tired

That's about five pounds more than the Tiger normally weighs.

Jones, a once high-ranking middleweight who now has lost four straight decisions, tired visibly in the seventh. The West Indian poured on the pace in that round and in the eighth and ninth, too, to win all three of the rounds from all officials. That decided a very close fight.

These Turkeys Had Better Trot Fast

NORTH PLATTE — An "old-fashioned Tennessee turkey shoot" is scheduled here Sunday.

Shooters will use 22 rifles at 150 feet in attempting to kill live turkeys hidden behind a log. No telescopic sights will be allowed.

Shoot chairman Dick Wommack points out that only the head of the turkey will be visible most of the time, and the target will be moving.

But each flight of five men is guaranteed a turkey. Each flight shoots until one member scores a hit.

The shoot will be held at Long's Grove, east of North Platte, from 11 a.m. through the afternoon Sunday.

Glassford Named K-State Speaker

Coach Bill Glassford might talk Orange Bowl Dec. 14.

That's the day he'll headline the Kansas State football banquet at Manhattan, Kan. The Wildcats invited the NU mentor to be principal speaker at the affair.

If Kansas State finishes unbeaten in its remaining two Big Seven grid games, the 'Cats will be Orange Bowl bound, although possibly tied with NU for second in the Big Seven.

Nebraska could edge past K-State for the Bowl trip if the Huskers beat Oklahoma or the Wildcats lose or tie one of their tilts against Iowa State or Colorado.

Hordville Widow, 89, Wins Round In Battle Over Coal Bill

Mrs. Lavina Campbell, 89-year-old Hordville widow, won another round in the State Supreme Court Friday in her efforts to keep some of her property from being sold to satisfy a 25-year-old coal bill for $82.55.

It was the second time the case had received a Supreme Court ruling.

The Campbells were investors in the Hordville Lumber Co. and lost their investment when the company went broke in the early 1930's. At the time the firm went under, the Campbells owed the bill for coal.

William Ehlers of Omaha in 1932 purchased the book accounts of the company for $20 and brought suit in Hamilton County to recover the $82.55.

A previous court decision held that Mrs. Campbell's home could not be sold to satisfy the judgment.

The high court's ruling Friday held that the two lots on which the house stands are not subject to lien either, because of homestead rights. And a third vacant lot cannot be sold at this time to satisfy the lien because of the nature of Mrs. Campbell's interest in it, the court ruled.

Iowa State, K-State In Loop Tangle

Lincoln Star Special

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Iowa State's Fighting Few turn to Kansas State Saturday — a team that has Iowa State, Homecoming and Orange Bowl on its mind in that order.

The game, to be played at Memorial Stadium in Manhattan, will start at 2 p.m.

Kansas State, winner by a 20-12 margin last year, figures it has a lot of reasons to hang loss No. 6 on the Cyclones Saturday. Historically, of course, the Cyclones hold a 22-12 edge in the series with three tie games. The part the Wildcats want to wipe out is the string of 10 straight wins for Iowa State that preceded the win at Ames last year. Iowa State last lost in Manhattan in 1942 by a 7-6 score.

Won Six

Even more important than history to the Wildcats, though, is the fact that some 20,000 homecomers will be on hand to watch the game. Kansas State has won six games so far this year. By winning over Iowa State this week it could equal its best mark since 1934 when Lynn Waldorf coached the Wildcats to the Big Six title. By winning both against Iowa State and Colorado the Kansas State team could equal its modern best of 8-2, set in 1931 under Bo McMillin.

Probably more important than any previously mentioned reason for figuring the Wildcats to be all out Saturday is the Orange Bowl tieup with the Big Seven. A champion cannot succeed itself in the Bowl game. Oklahoma, therefore is not eligible for the return trip. Kansas State by winning two more games is a cinch for the trip. A loss eliminates the Wildcats.

Rough Afternoon

All of which totals up to a rough afternoon for Iowa State.

The Cyclones, though, have some ideas of why it would like to win, too. A win at Manhattan would insure the Cyclones of an improvement over 1953 in Big Seven standings without help from anyone. Right now to keep from sharing last place Iowa State needs to have Missouri beat Kansas, Nov. 20.

The improvement is already there in the overall standings for the Cyclones but they'd like to be better. A year ago it was a 2-7 season. Right now it is a 3-5 year. But a win over Kansas State would make it a 4-5 record and would be rated a terrific season for the kids now known as "the Fighting Few."

Kansas State will hold the role of favorite with one of its best teams in many years. It has the better record and on a comparative score basis they average about a touchdown per foe better than Iowa State.

The probable starters:

IOWA STATE		KANSAS STATE

Elmer May	C	Jim Furey
Weldon Thalacker	RG	Ron Marcinnak

No Damages Allowed In Auto Collision

The State Supreme Court ruled Friday, in a majority opinion, that the estate of the late Henry E. Rogers, a rural mail carrier in Johnson County, was not entitled to damages from the Rev. Keith Shepher, Vesta, Neb., Methodist minister, as the result of an automonile collision southeast of Sterling in January, 1951.

Judges Wenke and Chappell dissented.

The Rogers and Shepherd cars came together at the top of a hill on a day when the surface of the narrow country road was covered with packed snow. Both cars were damaged and both drivers were injured but Rogers' death eight weeks later was attributed to a heart attack.

A Johnson county district court jury awarded the Rogers estate damages of $6,185 but the Supreme Court said:

"In a long line of cases, this Court has held that where evidence shows beyond reasonable doubt that plaintiff's negligence was more than slight in comparison with that of the defendant, the action should be dismissed or verdict directed."

The court pointed out that there was no evidence as to Rogers' speed or whether he attempted to stop or turn aside from the travelled path in the center of the road.

"However," the court added, "his view was unobstructed and he could have seen as soon as defendant Shepherd could."

Judges Wenke and Chappell, dissenting, said the record presented a question of fact for the jury and not one of law for the court and that the trial court correctly submitted the case to the jury.

Deadly Weapon?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Welterweight boxing contender Ramon Fuentes, who has a non-title bout here Dec. 2 with champion Johnny Saxton, was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon—his fists.

Fuentes was arrested after German Ornelas, 26, complained to Sheriff's deputies that the boxer struck him without provocation after he offered to buy him a drink at a bar. Ornelas was treated for an injured nose at an emergency hospital.

Fuentes, 27, denied striking Ornelas, saying someone else struck the blow.

Tech Hopes To Improve Bowl Stock

ATLANTA (AP)— Georgia Tech hopes to improve its bowl stock today when Coach Bobby Dodd's Yellow Jackets meet Alabama in the NCAA's nationally televised football Game of the Week.

Tech has been in a bowl the past three New Year's days.

Tech has lost three games this season—but by a total of only nine points. Florida and Duke scored one-point victories over Tech and Kentucky beat the Jackets 13-6.

The 'Bama-Tech rivalry is one of the oldest and keenest in the nation and past records mean little when these Southeastern Conference foes collide.

4-2-2 Mark

Alabama has won 4, lost 2 and tied 2 and is the nation's top defensive team but Coach Red Drew is worried about several regulars whose injuries may weaken the Crimson Tide's defense. Tackle Ed Culpepper, end Gene Donaldson and guard Jeff Moorer are on the sick list and won't be at top form if they get to play.

Both teams have fine quarterbacks and flashy ball carriers. Junior Bart Starr will direct 'Bama's split-T attack. Starr is a fine ball handler and a brilliant passer. Sophomore Wade Mitchell handles Tech's straight-T.

Halfbacks Corky Tarp, Bobby Luna and Cecil Ingram and fullback Bill Stone give the Tide a dangerous running attack. Tech's top ball carriers are Paul Roenberry, Johnny Menger and Jimmy Thompson, a trio of sophomore halfbacks, and fullback George Humphreys.

Tackle George Mason and guard Harry Lee anchor a rugged 'Bama line. Captain Larry Morris, a center, and guard Franklin Brooks are Tech line stars.

NWU Band Reviews Life Of Chancellor

The Nebraska Wesleyan University marching band wound up its series of halftime football shows Friday night with a surprise salute to newly inaugurated Chancellor and Mrs. A. Leland Forrest Friday night.

Basing the show on a "This is your Life," theme, Prof. Robert Marshall led the 80-piece organization through a full 15 minute show which took the Wesleyan Chancellor from the cradle up to the present moment.

As the band unwound across the playing field playing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," Superior Junior Lew Hunter began to read from a huge yellow and brown book, and asked that Dr. Forrest be ushered onto the playing field. As the band formed a cradle, Hunter informed the crowd that Dr. Forrest was born in the Lone Star state and the crowd responded with an enmasse serenade to "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

Mrs. Forrest was escorted to the field and presented a bouquet of roses as the band formed a church and played the "Wedding March."

Various appropriate formations and music illustrated the earning of A.B., M. A. and Ph. D. degrees at three different schools and the various professional aspects of Dr. Forrest's life as a college teacher and administrator.

As a final gesture the band formed a huge "CHAN" across the field and made Dr. Forrest an honorary member of the band.

Four members of the band are seniors and were introduced to the crowd. They are Louise Stone, Sullivan, Mo.; Jeannie Lindstrom, Geneva; Larry Abker, Geneva; and Frank Mills, Murdock.

Buffalos Test Utah In 51st Meeting Of Series

BOULDER, Colo.—Winless in their last three starts after breezing through five straight opening opponents, Colorado's Buffalos turn to one of their oldest rivals today in an attempt to get back on the win path.

The Buffs will journey to Salt Lake City for their 51st meeting with Utah in a series which has always stood out as one of the Rocky Mountain region's finest. Colorado has won 25, Utah 22 and three games have ended in a tie in the ancient series which began in 1903.

Despite a so-so 3-5 record thus far, Coach Jack Curtice's Redskins will have a formidable ambush ready for the Buffs Saturday. Salt Lake City appearances are always tough for Colorado grid teams. Ward has taken clubs over the mountains three times and returned only once with a triumph—and that one a hard-fought 20 - 14 verdict over an underdog Ute crew two years ago.

In 1948, Ward's first year at Colorado, the Buffs hit Ute Bowl fresh from a 51 - 7 defeat of Kansas State and were promptly scalped, 12 - 14. Two years later the Buffs, with a 28-19 win over a highly-favored Nebraska team fresh in their memory, barely escaped with a 20 - 20 tie.

Curtice, whose winged-T offense is one of the best, has a typical club this fall—one which has given all foes trouble but which has fallen three times by one point. But the Utes own wins over Oregon and Wyoming—two formidable clubs.

The Redskins field a beefy, all-veteran line spearheaded by Tackle Don Henderson and Guard Lynn Simons — two of the Skyline league's best.

Quarterback Dave Dungan is continuing the Curtice tradition of fine passing T-operators. Dungan is currently the nation's 14th ranking passer and has a 55.7 per cent completion record, hitting 44 of 79 tries for 525 yards.

Halfback Herb Nakken, the nation's 18th best rusher with 546 yards in 107 carries, and Fullback Lou Mele, a real handy gent who can run, pass, punt, kick off and convert, are leading lights in the Utah backfield.

The probable starters:

Colorado		Utah
Les Lotz	LE	Orville Nellestein
Tom Giek	LT	Don Henderson
Dick Stapp	LG	Lynn Simons
Dick Freund	C	Carl Poglajen
Dave Jones	RG	Tommy Thompson
Sam Salerno	RT	Donnie Barr
Wally Merz	RE	Dave Germann
Sam Maphis	QB	Dave Dungan
Carroll Hardy	LH	Max Pierce
Frank Bernardi	RH	Herb Nakken
John Bayuk	FB	Lou Mele

Oakland Cops Husker Crown

OAKLAND—Oakland won the Husker Conference championship here Friday night, defeating Stanton, 32-0, before a record crowd of more than 2,500 persons.

The Vikings completely dominated play, limiting Stanton to only three first downs, and scoring in every quarter.

Bob Holmes opened the TD parade when he blocked a Stanton punt and Teammate Dale Hansen pounced on the ball in the end zone for a first quarter tally.

Gerald Grone and Pat Fischer, young brother of Coach Kenny Fischer, gave the victors a 19-0 halftime margin with runs of 55 and 15 yards respectively in the second.

In the third quarter, Lonnie Johnson took a pass from Frank Stanton and scored on a 59-yard play. Fischer added the final score in the fourth, taking a 25-yard pass from Johnson.

Tackle Charles Baltzell and Guard Bruce Carlson led the Viking line with their smashing defensive play.

Oakland	6	13	6	7	—32

Oakland scoring: Touchdowns, Hansen, Grone, Fischer 2, Johnson. Conversions, Grone (plunge) and Johnson (pass).

Bears Head Negotiates In Chicago

DENVER (AP)— The Rocky Mountain News said Friday night that Bob Howsam, president and general manager of the Denver Bears, was in Chicago Friday negotiating to get Denver a berth in the American Baseball Assn.

Howsam, who was registered at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, conferred with Parke Carroll, general manager of the New York Yankees' Kansas City team, the News said. Moving of the Philadelphia Athletics of the American League to Kansas City will shift the American Assn. team there to another city. Denver is a member of the Class-A Western League.

The News said Howsam refused to accept telephone calls and added that "Howsam's conversation with Carroll is not a matter of record, but, of necessity, had to revolve around three possibilities.

"The first would find the Yankees buying out the (Denver) Bears completely, ball club and stadium. The second would have the Yankees buying the club and leasing the stadium from Howsam and the third would leave Howsam and his associates running the club in the association with a strict working agreement with the Yankees."

Omaha's Drive To Get AA Continues

OMAHA (AP)—Omaha's drive to land a team in the American Association continued Friday with a steady flow of telegrams and letters going to key figures involved in finding a site for the displaced Kansas City Blues.

Hundreds of other letters were piling up in Mayor John Rosenblatt's office awaiting transport to Chicago where they'll be shown to Association officials at their annual meeting Tuesday.

"We have heard from all of the parties concerned, either directly or indirectly," said Chairman Al Sorensen of the Citizens' Committee and "they admit being impressed and surprised by the flood of messages from Omaha.

CV Pep Club Host To Football Team

The College View High pep club played host to the Viewman football squad Friday night at the school in the annual post-season chili feed.

The pep club, under the leadership of Mary White, served gallons of chili, crackers, carrots, celery, cokes and cake to the squad and provided entertainment in a "Truth Or Consequences" motif.

College View players, peppers, coaches and guests consumed chili made from 50 pounds of meat, 16 packages of chili seasoning, 15 chili bricks, 25 onions, 15 cloves of garlic, two cases of tomato juice and 15 lbs. of beans.

Guests of honor were the five senior football players on the squad — Dave Paulson, Lowell Ham, Glenn Hoy, Gene Reed and Lynn Hatcher. Following the feed, a dance was held in the auditorium.

Mitri Will Defend

MILAN (AP)— European middleweight champion Tiberio Mitri of Italy will defend his title here tonight against Charles Humez of France in a 15-round bout.

Promoter Jack Solomons of London, who is staging the show, said the winner will challenge Bobo Olson of San Francisco for the world title.

'There's been talk of a non-title match for the winner against Olson," Solomons said, 'but that's out. The fight definitely will be for the title."

Irish Trying To Claw Back

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)— Once-nicked Notre Dame, for five weeks trying to claw back to its pre-season ranking as the nation's No. 1 football team, is a four-touchdown favorite over chipper North Carolina here today.

That favoritism seems over heavy in view of North Carolina's upset last Saturday of South Carolina, Army's only conqueror this season, and Notre Dame's injury loss of iron-man, Dick Szymanski.

At any rate, the Tar Heels (3-3-1) will have hunger riding on their side as they essay an upset which would mark their first victory in a six-game series running consecutively since 1949.

Both the Irish and Tar Heels feature the split-T attack, but while North Carolina alternates two teams, Notre Dame has had eight performers who have averaged 44 minutes per game.

Leading Irish endurable was Szymanski who averaged 48 minutes, including last Saturday's Penn game in which he suffered a ruptured spleen. He is out for the season now. Jim Mense, unseasoned junior, probably will start in Szymanski's place.

Like Notre Dame, North Carolina has had to shift personnel because of injuries. The Tar Heels are banking heavily on 213-pound Don Klochak, sophomore fullback, to batter the Irish as effectively as he did South Carolina last week when he averaged better than 10 yards per carry.

Now fifth-rated in the Associated Press weekly poll, Notre Dame has been just one of the "Big Ten" pack since its 27-14 loss to Purdue on Oct. 2.

Hector Constance Stops Tiger Jones

NEW YORK (AP)—Shifty Hector Constance of Trinidad ran his modest unbeaten streak in the United States to three Friday night by gaining a close and split decision over favored Ralph Tiger Jones of Yonkers, N. Y., in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden. Jones outweighed Constant, 161 to 153.

An 8-5 underdog, the rangy, fleet-footed West Indian won the votes of referee Al Berl and Arthur Susskind by 6 rounds to 4. Judge Frank Forbes had it a draw, 5 rounds and 6 points for each. The Associated Press had Constance in front, 6-3-1.

The slim crowd constantly applauded the interesting, almost clinch-free fight although there were no knockdowns and neither punched very hard. Constance, 26, threw more punches and landed more often than his heavier rival who appeared very sluggish at 161.

Jones Tired

That's about five pounds more than the Tiger normally weighs.

Jones, a once high-ranking middleweight who now has lost four straight decisions, tired visibly in the seventh. The West Indian poured on the pace in that round and in the eighth and ninth, too, to win all three of the rounds from all officials. That decided a very close fight.

These Turkeys Had Better Trot Fast

NORTH PLATTE — An "old-fashioned Tennessee turkey shoot" is scheduled here Sunday.

Shooters will use 22 rifles at 150 feet in attempting to kill live turkeys hidden behind a log. No telescopic sights will be allowed.

Shoot chairman Dick Wommack points out that only the head of the turkey will be visible most of the time, and the target will be moving.

But each flight of five men is guaranteed a turkey. Each flight shoots until one member scores a hit.

The shoot will be held at Long's Grove, east of North Platte, from 11 a.m. through the afternoon Sunday.

Glassford Named K-State Speaker

Coach Bill Glassford might talk Orange Bowl Dec. 14.

That's the day he'll headline the Kansas State football banquet at Manhattan, Kan. The Wildcats invited the NU mentor to be principal speaker at the affair.

If Kansas State finishes unbeaten in its remaining two Big Seven grid games, the 'Cats will be Orange Bowl bound, although possibly tied with NU for second in the Big Seven.

Nebraska could edge past K-State for the Bowl trip if the Huskers beat Oklahoma or the Wildcats lose or tie one of their tilts against Iowa State or Colorado.

Hordville Widow, 89, Wins Round In Battle Over Coal Bill

Mrs. Lavina Campbell, 89-year-old Hordville widow, won another round in the State Supreme Court Friday in her efforts to keep some of her property from being sold to satisfy a 23-year-old coal bill for $82.55.

It was the second time the case had received a Supreme Court ruling.

The Campbells were investors in the Hordville Lumber Co. and lost their investment when the company went broke in the early 1930's. At the time the firm went under, the Campbells owed the bill for coal.

William Ehlers of Omaha in 1932 purchased the book accounts of the company for $20 and brought suit in Hamilton County to recover the $82.55.

A previous court decision held that Mrs. Campbell's home could not be sold to satisfy the judgment.

The high court's ruling Friday held that the two lots on which the house stands are not subject to lien either, because of homestead rights. And a third vacant lot cannot be sold at this time to satisfy the lien because of the nature of Mrs. Campbell's interest in it, the court ruled.

Iowa State, K-State In Loop Tangle

Lincoln Star Special

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Iowa State's Fighting Few turn to Kansas State Saturday — a team that has Iowa State, Homecoming and Orange Bowl on its mind in that order.

The game, to be played at Memorial Stadium in Manhattan, will start at 2 p.m.

Kansas State, winner by a 20-12 margin last year, figures it has a lot of reasons to hang loss No. 6 on the Cyclones Saturday. Historically, of course, the Cyclones hold a 22-12 edge in the series with three tie games. The part the Wildcats want to wipe out is the string of 10 straight wins for Iowa State that preceded the win at Ames last year. Iowa State last lost in Manhattan in 1942 by a 7-6 score.

Won Six

Even more important than history to the Wildcats, though, is the fact that some 20,000 homecomers will be on hand to watch the game. Kansas State has won six games so far this year. By winning over Iowa State this week it could equal its best mark since 1934 when Lynn Waldorf coached the Wildcats to the Big Six title. By winning both against Iowa State and Colorado the Kansas State team could equal its modern best of 8-2, set in 1931 under Bo McMillin.

Probably more important than any previously mentioned reason for figuring the Wildcats to be all out Saturday is the Orange Bowl tieup with the Big Seven. A champion cannot succeed itself in the Bowl game. Oklahoma, therefore is not eligible for the return trip. Kansas State by winning two more games is a cinch for the trip. A loss eliminates the Wildcats.

Rough Afternoon

All of which totals up to a rough afternoon for Iowa State.

The Cyclones, though, have some ideas of why it would like to win, too. A win at Manhattan would insure the Cyclones of an improvement over 1953 in Big Seven standings without help from anyone. Right now to keep from sharing last place Iowa State needs to have Missouri beat Kansas, Nov. 20.

The improvement is already there in the overall standings for the Cyclones but they'd like to be better. A year ago it was a 2-7 season. Right now it is a 3-5 year. But a win over Kansas State would make it a 4-5 record and would be rated a terrific season for the kids now known as "the Fighting Few."

Kansas State will hold the role of favorite with one of its best teams in many years. It has the better record and on a comparative score basis they average about a touchdown per foe better than Iowa State.

The probable starters:

IOWA STATE		KANSAS STATE
Mell Wostoupal	LE	L. D. Fitzgerald

Weldon Thalacker	RG	Ron Marciniak

No Damages Allowed In Auto Collision

The State Supreme Court ruled Friday, in a majority opinion, that the estate of the late Henry E. Rogers, a rural mail carrier in Johnson County, was not entitled to damages from the Rev. Keith Shepher, Vesta, Neb., Methodist minister, as the result of an automonile collision southeast of Sterling in January, 1951.

Judges Wenke and Chappell dissented.

The Rogers and Shepherd cars came together at the top of a hill on a day when the surface of the narrow country road was covered with packed snow. Both cars were damaged and both drivers were injured but Rogers' death eight weeks later was attributed to a heart attack.

A Johnson county district court jury awarded the Rogers estate damages of $6,185 but the Supreme Court said:

"In a long line of cases, this Court has held that where evidence shows beyond reasonable doubt that plaintiff's negligence was more than slight in comparison with that of the defendant, the action should be dismissed or verdict directed."

The court pointed out that there was no evidence as to Rogers' speed or whether he attempted to stop or turn aside from the travelled path in the center of the road.

"However," the court added, "his view was unobstructed and he could have seen as soon as defendant Shepherd could."

Judges Wenke and Chappell, dissenting, said the record presented a question of fact for the jury and not one of law for the court and that the trial court correctly submitted the case to the jury.

Deadly Weapon?

LOS ANGELES (AP)— Welterweight boxing contender Ramon Fuentes, who has a non-title bout here Dec. 2 with champion Johnny Saxton, was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon—his fists.

Fuentes was arrested after German Ornelas, 28, complained to Sheriff's deputies that the boxer struck him without provocation after he offered to buy him a drink at a bar. Ornelas was treated for an injured nose at an emergency hospital.

Fuentes, 27, denied striking Ornelas, saying someone else struck the blow.

Legislative Council OKs Last Of Twenty Proposals

Strongest Recommendation Given Favors Re-Examination Of Drivers

Last of 20 committee recommendations to the Legislative Council which has been in session since last Tuesday were adopted Friday and the members adjourned.

Among the group's strongest recommendations was one, adopted earlier in the week, calling for periodical re-examination before renewal of driver's licenses.

Another proposal could return the operation of the state weighing stations to the safety patrol.

The council recommended at the same time that the patrol be enlarged and that the state help public high schools with the cost of driver-training courses. This would be done by raising the driver's license fee.

Sen. Dwight Burney of Hartington Friday reported on the progress of a committee which has been working on state highway law revisions.

Studying Highways

Two points receiving special consideration, he explained, are the authority of the highway department and how far to go in writing the sufficiency rating system into law.

When the council came to the report of the rules committee, headed by Sen. Robert McNutt of Lincoln, it voted that any committee bills based on council recommendations should be introduced in the first seven days of the new session. After that, individual members of the incoming legislature will be free to introduce any bills they wish that are based on council reports.

This rule was designed to afford continuity between the council and the new legislature, and to prevent duplication of bills on the same subject.

'Voters Read, Studied'

Sen. O. H. Liebers of Lincoln, chairman of the tax study committee, said election results indicated the voters had read and studied each individual proposed constitutional amendment. This conclusion was based on the selectivity evidently exercised in the balloting on the various tax reform proposals.

The five tax proposals voted on last week were put on the ballot by the legislature in special session last spring, but the Liebers committee had done much spadework before the legislature met in April.

More Work Remains

Liebers said much had been accomplished, but there is still work to be done.

Fifteen members of the 1953 legislature will not be back next session. Some did not seek re-election and others lost out in either the primary or general election.

Most of the "freshman" senators were here this week observing the council in action and becoming acquainted with their future colleagues.

Mrs. Kathleen Foote of Axtell, who succeeds Richard Marvele of Hastings in the Adams-Kearney county district, was introduced Friday.

She is the first woman to be elected to the unicameral, although some have beene appointed to fill vacancies.

Dr. Furst Named Dental Alumni President-Elect

Dr. Lyle Furst of York Friday was named president-elect of the University of Nebraska Dental Alumni Association, meeting in Lincoln. He will assume the presidency post Jan. 1, 1956.

Dr. Furst

Dr. Vere Reynolds of Lexington will be president for the year 1955, and the retiring president is Dr. C. E. Baker of David City.

Dr. Byron Tullis of Lincoln was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

One hundred-fifty dental graduates registered for the two-day meeting which ends Saturday noon.

Legislative Council OKs Last Of Twenty Proposals

Strongest Recommendation Given Favors Re-Examination Of Drivers

Last of 20 committee recommendations to the Legislative Council which has been in session since last Tuesday were adopted Friday and the members adjourned.

Among the group's strongest recommendations was one, adopted earlier in the week, calling for periodical re-examination before renewal of driver's licenses.

Another proposal could return the operation of the state weighing stations to the safety patrol.

The council recommended at the same time that the patrol be enlarged and that the state help public high schools with the cost of driver-training courses. This would be done by raising the driver's license fee.

Sen. Dwight Burney of Hartington Friday reported on the progress of a committee which has been working on state highway law revisions.

Studying Highways

Two points receiving special consideration, he explained, are the authority of the highway department and how far to go in writing the sufficiency rating system into law.

When the council came to the report of the rules committee, headed by Sen. Robert McNutt of Lincoln, it voted that any committee bills based on council recommendations should be introduced in the first seven days of the new session. After that, individual members of the incoming legislature will be free to introduce any bills they wish that are based on council reports.

This rule was designed to afford continuity between the council and the new legislature, and to prevent duplication of bills on the same subject.

'Voters Read, Studied'

Sen. O. H. Liebers of Lincoln, chairman of the tax study committee, said election results indicated the voters had read and studied each individual proposed constitutional amendment. This conclusion was based on the selectivity evidently exercised in the balloting on the various tav reform proposals.

The five tax proposals voted on last week were put on the ballot by the legislature in special session last spring, but the Liebers committee had done much spadework before the legislature met in April.

More Work Remains

Liebers said much had been accomplished, but there is still work to be done.

Fifteen members of the 1953 legislature will not be back next session. Some did not seek re-election and others lost out in either the primary or general election.

Most of the "freshman" senators were here this week observing the council in action and becoming acquainted with their future colleagues.

Mrs. Kathleen Foote of Axtell, who succeeds Richard Marvele of Hastings in the Adams-Kearney county district, was introduced Friday.

She is the first woman to be elected to the unicameral, although some have beene appointed to fill vacancies.

Dr. Furst Named Dental Alumni President-Elect

Dr. Lyle Furst of York Friday was named president-elect of the University of Nebraska Dental Alumni Association, meeting in Lincoln. He will assume the presidency post Jan. 1, 1956.

Dr. Furst

Dr. Vere Reynolds of Lexington will be president for the year 1955, and the retiring president is Dr. C. E. Baker of David City.

Dr. Byron Tullis of Lincoln was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Demos Would Like Dulles Aid Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic senators said Friday they would welcome the appointment by Secretary of State Dulles of a Democratic adviser if that action is a forerunner of increased consultation on foreign policy.

Associates of Dulles said earlier in the day that he is prepared to name a Democratic consultant if leaders of the opposing party suggest a qualified man. Dulles himself served in such an advisory role with Former Secretary of State Dean Acheson and other Democratic officials before President Eisenhower's election.

Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark), a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview that the selection by Dulles of a Democrat to act as adviser would be a "proper step" toward cementing bipartisan cooperation on international affairs.

But Fulbright and other Democrats willing to comment made it clear that they are considerably more interested in having members of their party consulted about controversial issues in advance of any decision upon them than they are in having a Democrat assigned to the State Department.

"The real way for the administration to get cooperation is to invite the Democrats in and ask their advice before policy decisions are made, not just to notify them before it is publicly announced that a decision has been reached," Fulbright said.

Eisenhower has invited Democratic and Republican leaders to a White House meeting Nov. 17, and one influential senator, who asked not to be quoted by name, said he thinks the Democrats try to find out at that session just where they stand.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he thought it would be an excellent idea for Dulles to have a Democrat at his elbow for consultation when crises arose.

"The world is so small today that there is an imperative necessity to work out harmonious steps in foreign affairs," he said. "I think it is a good idea to have a Democrat in a key position as consultant."

Call For End Of Strike

SYDNEY (INS) — Australian waterfront leaders called for an end to a 10-day strike against transfer of labor recruiting powers from the union to shipowners. Some 26,000 workers went on strike after Parliament passed a bill changing the dock labor recruiting system. Dockers will vote Monday on their leaders' call to go back to work Tuesday on some 150-strike-bound ships.

Chamber President Says U.S. On 'Renaissance' Threshold

Clem D. Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, told a Lincoln business and industrial audience Friday that America is on the threshold of a renaissance of overpowering possibilities.

But he listed its enemies as monopolism and the overlordism of guardianship governments.

Speaking at a Lincoln Chamber of Commerce's public affairs luncheon Johnston asserted that the promised bountiful years ahead require full release of individualism, free enterprize and capitalism.

Johnston set up the essentials of Americanism as faith in the capacity of man to solve his own problems, equality of opportunity, social change by persuasion, maximum opportunity for the maximum number and enough respect for the dignity of man to let him alone.

The U.S. Chamber president asserted that the nation is passing from a war economy to a peace economy and from greater government to less government in a healthy fashion but he warned that the return to free enterprize and to the profit system does not mean that everyone shall profit.

"It is a profit and loss system. The change-over will bring some casualties but they are in no sense an indication of disaster or that there is anything wrong with our system," he said.

Johnston expressed support for the Benson farm program of flexible price supports. He dismissed the approach that agriculture is a thing apart—essentially different from competitive industry.

Such a belief, he said, "dates from the days when four fifths of our people lived on or in close connections with the farm. Today agricultures is performed by much fewer—25 per cent fewer than 10 years ago—under conditions more and more approximate to those of industry.

Johnson hit at progressive taxation, the misconception that the world owes a man a living and over paternalism. He noted that industry was spending upward of $3 billion a year in research and pouring forth new products and opening new markets which offer untold betterment for those who under freedom can go forward to them courageously.

He predicted atomic power within another decade and named improved highways as one of the major immediate national needs.

Asked of the place of the Middle West in the future picture he replied:

"There is nothing backward here. The Middle West is fully abreast in national advance and equal to any section," he said. "It needs more electric power and better highways. Its farm production will support more people. Industry will come to it in increasing volume."

Johnston placed himself at the side of private power and advocated the Yates-Dixon contract for supply of private power to the TVA area provided "the pending contract with the government meets the requirements of the public welfare."

He asserted that private finance and private enterprise was willing and able to support the responsibilities heretafore assumed by the federal government in the development of natural resources.

He described "the sheeplike trust of people in the omniscience of government as "one of the incredible and tragic phenomena of our time."

Special guests at the public affairs luncheon were: Gov. Robert Crosby, Lincoln Mayor Clark Jeary, Lincoln Chamber president John Curtiss, Clyde B. Dempster of Beatrice, U. S. Chamber Vice President; Arthur E. Stoddard of Omaha, U. S. Chamber Director; George Holmes and R. E. Campbell, former Directors; E. J. Faulkner, member of the insurance committee; Burnham Yates, member of the finance department committee; Earl T. Luff, member of the labor relations committee; A. A. DuTeau, National Councillor from the Lincoln Chamber to the U. S. Chamber; Howard S. Wilson, former member of the committee on federal finance; and Sam C. Waugh, former member of the U. S. Chamber's policy and national affairs committees.

Chamber President Says U.S. On 'Renaissance' Threshold

JOHNSTON

Clem D. Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, told a Lincoln business and industrial audience Friday that America is on the threshold of a renaissance of overpowering possibilities.

But he listed its enemies as monopolism and the overlordism of guardianship governments.

Speaking at a Lincoln Chamber of Commerce's public affairs luncheon Johnston asserted that the promised bountiful years ahead require full release of individualism, free enterprize and capitalism.

Johnston set up the essentials of Americanism as faith in the capacity of man to solve his own problems, equality of opportunity, social change by persuasion, maximum opportunity for the maximum number and enough respect for the dignity of man to let him alone.

The U.S. Chamber president asserted that the nation is passing from a war economy to a peace economy and from greater government to less government in a healthy fashion but he warned that the return to free enterprize and to the profit system does not mean that everyone shall profit.

"It is a profit and loss system. The change-over will bring some casualties but they are in no sense an indication of disaster or that there is anything wrong with our system," he said.

Johnston expressed support for the Benson farm program of flexible price supports. He dismissed the approach that agriculture is a thing apart—essentially different from competitive industry.

Such a belief, he said, "dates from the days when four fifths of our people lived on or in close connections with the farm. Today agricultures is performed by much fewer—25 per cent fewer than 10 years ago—under conditions more and more approximate to those of industry.

Johnson hit at progressive taxation, the misconception that the world owes a man a living and over paternalism. He noted that industry was spending upward of $3 billion a year in research and pouring forth new products and opening new markets which offer untold betterment for those who under freedom can go forward to them courageously.

He predicted atomic power within another decade and named improved highways as one of the major immediate national needs.

Asked of the place of the Middle West in the future picture he replied:

"There is nothing backward here. The Middle West is fully abreast in national advance and equal to any section," he said. "It needs more electric power and better highways. Its farm production will support more people. Industry will come to it in increasing volume."

Johnston placed himself at the side of private power and advocated the Yates-Dixon contract for supply of private power to the TVA area provided "the pending contract with the government meets the requirements of the public welfare."

He asserted that private finance and private enterprise was willing and able to support the responsibilities heretafore assumed by the federal government in the development of natural resources.

He described "the sheeplike trust of people in the omniscience of government as "one of the incredible and tragic phenomena of our time."

Special guests at the public affairs luncheon were: Gov. Robert Crosby, Lincoln Mayor Clark Jeary, Lincoln Chamber president John Curtiss, Clyde B. Dempster of Beatrice, U. S. Chamber Vice President; Arthur E. Stoddard of Omaha, U. S. Chamber Director; George Holmes and R. E. Campbell, former Directors; E. J. Faulkner, member of the insurance committee; Burnham Yates, member of the finance department committee; Earl T. Luff, member of the labor relations committee; A. A. DuTeau, National Councillor from the Lincoln Chamber to the U. S. Chamber; Howard S. Wilson, former member of the committee on federal finance; and Sam C. Waugh, former member of the U. S. Chamber's policy and national affairs committees.

Only Oats Steady In Late Grain Sales

Selling apparently came mainly from traders who didn't wish to hold onto grains over the weekend. Earlier in the day grains had scored small advances, several contracts of wheat and oats setting new seasonal peaks.

Wheat closed ¼-⅝ lower, corn 1⅝-2⅛ lower, oats unchanged to ¼ higher, rye unchanged to ⅝ lower, soybeans 1 to 1⅝ lower and lard 12 cents lower to 23 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Despite the day's slump wheat ended 1⅜ to 3¼ cents higher for the week.

Corn fell quite sharply in the last hour. Traders evidently expected large receipts of cash corn at terminals Monday. The week has been ideal for completion of the corn harvest throughout the main producing area.

Oats held up very well during the last hour when everything else was declining. Strength was particularly noticeable in the December delivery. This reflected a strong cash market, a situation created by a good demand for oats for livestock feeding.

Soybeans also were sold on the possibility of large receipts of cash beans Monday, although all reports indicate a very strong withholding tendency of farmers.

Desperate Sisters Hunt Presses On

EGERIA, W.Va. (INS) — The desperate hunt for two little sisters lost in the rugged mountains of southern West Virginia shifted Friday to a new area.

The girls, Irene Agee, 8, and Mary, 6, dropped from sight 12 days ago in the snake-infested hills.

Sgt. Willard Riffe, at the state guard command post on a ridge over-looking the Agee home, said authorities are convinced the children are lost and not the victims of foul play.

The new search centered in a thickly-wooded hollow which the children entered on their way home from an after-school visit to a neighbor.

Three companies of guardsmen are pushing through the dense underbrush.

Officials are stumped by the fact the tots, who were carrying school books, tablets and pencils, did not leave a single clue of their trail.

The group will adjourn at noon to attend the Nebraska-Pitt football game.

Only Oats Steady In Late Grain Sales

CHICAGO (AP)—A late selloff left all grains except oats with losses at the close on the Board of Trade Friday.

Selling apparently came mainly from traders who didn't wish to hold onto grains over the weekend. Earlier in the day grains had scored small advances, several contracts of wheat and oats setting new seasonal peaks.

Wheat closed ¼-¾ lower, corn 1⅝-2⅛ lower, oats unchanged to ¼ higher, rye unchanged to ¾ lower, soybeans 1 to 1¾ lower and lard 12 cents lower to 23 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Despite the day's slump wheat ended 1⅜ to 3¼ cents higher for the week.

Corn fell quite sharply in the last hour. Traders evidently expected large receipts of cash corn at terminals Monday. The week has been ideal for completion of the corn harvest throughout the main producing area.

Oats held up very well during the last hour when everything else was declining. Strength was particularly noticeable in the December delivery. This reflected a strong cash market, a situation created by a good demand for oats for livestock feeding.

Soybeans also were sold on the possibility of large receipts of cash beans Monday, although all reports indicate a very strong withholding tendency of farmers.

'Condemn McCarthy For Slime'

Sen. Stennis Hits At Joe's Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) was assailed Friday as a spreader of "slush and slime," and defended as a victim of spiteful slanders, in the week's final session of the Senate debate on the question of censuring him.

The slush and slime charge came from Sen. Stennis (D-Miss), a member of the special committee which recommended censure for McCarthy. Stennis argued the Senate must "condemn" McCarthy's conduct in order to set a standard of political honor.

Republican Sen. Bricker (Ohio) and Goldwater (Ariz) came swiftly to McCarthy's defense, praising him as the symbol of American resistance to communism and blaming Communist influence for the move to rebuke him.

Finally a second member of the censure committee, Sen. Carlson (R-Kan), took the floor and protested sharply against McCarthy's charge that the committee members were "unwitting handmaidens" of the Communist party.

Carlson declared McCarthy's accusation—made in a speech he put into the Congressional Record Wednesday—was untrue, was a violation of Senate rules and "is therefore out of order."

The Kansas lawmaker likewise protested what he called the "legalistic inquiries" with which the McCarthy side has been bombarding committee members, and declared any "rear-guard" action to delay the proceedings will not go down well with the voters back home.

Don't Sacrifice Dignity

"We can certainly solve this problem," Carlson said, "without the sacrifice of the dignity of this chamber."

Goldwater (R-Ariz) described the censure move as "the culminating act to destroy America's foremost fighter against communism," and accused McCarthy's foes of hypocrisy.

"The masterminds in this fight have said one thing and meant another," Goldwater declared. "Their propaganda has dripped with idealism, high-mindedness, and lofty sentiments. Their deeds have come from the darkness . . .

Beatrice Lions To Furnish Two Hospital Rooms

Lincoln Star Special

BEATRICE, Neb. — Beatrice Lions Club members will furnish one room at each of Beatrice's two hospitals, club officers have announced.

The money, $750 for each hospital, will be given to the hospitals when their building plans are completed. Lutheran Hospital is presently planning a drive for funds for improvements at the hospital and the Mennonite Hospital will begin construction of a new hospital when additional Hill-Burton funds are made available, possibly next year.

Jeary To Attend AF Conference

Mayor Clark Jeary has announced plans to attend a conference in Washington, Dec. 1 in connection with proposals leading to a declaration of permanency for the Lincoln Air Force Base.

The trip is at the invitation of the Air Force. Major topic of discussion will be an Air Force requirement that to declare the Lincoln base permanent, the city must render to the government full title to the base property.

Such a transfer of title would require a vote of the people. By virtue of a vote of the people in April of 1953, the base property is now leased to the government for 99 years.

While in Washington, Jeary will also attend a conference of mayors from cities with populations over 70,000. This is an annual meeting called by the President to discuss a subject of national importance.

Last year's conference was on civil defense.

Heart Attack Cited In Kiplinger Death

An autopsy into the death of Gerald Kiplinger, 48, of 1440 Peach, has revealed the cause as a heart attack, according to Lancaster County Attorney Frederick Wagener.

Mr. Kiplinger was found by a passerby after falling into bookstore shelving in front of 132 No. 10th and suffered cuts about the head. He died enroute to a hospital.

Wagener said the autopsy showed no brain injury and no coroner's inquest would be called. Mr. Kiplinger, a Lincoln purple heart veteran, had been treated for a heart condition, Wagener added.

Education Director Gets Merit Award

Ona Wagner, director of general adult education in Lincoln, has received a merit award from the National Association of Public School Adult Educators.

Miss Wagner was one of five persons in the United States to receive the merit awards for their work in adult education nationally.

Miss Wagner also was recognized for her work in Lincoln, which was said to have one of the outstanding general adult education programs in the United States.

A member of the board of directors and one of the organizers of the National Association of Public School Adult Educators, Miss Wagner also is a national committee chairman of the Adult Education Association of the U.S.A.

She attended the national conventions of both groups in Chicago, where the adult educators' group held its third annual meeting.

A University of Nebraska graduate and a native of Ithaca, Miss Wagner also studied at Columbia University for a year and was a member of a special workshop in adult education at Columbia during one summer.

She has worked in the adult education program in Lincoln since 1938 except for a year when she traveled in the state for the Department of Justice organizing citizenship programs for the foreign born.

Belmont To Have School 'Houses'

Another "home-school" system is in the planning stage with final arrangements expected to be completed at the next meeting of the Board of Education, Dr. Steven Watkins, superintendent of schools, said Friday night.

Already in operation in the Eastridge development, where five homes are being used, the new proposal calls for homes to be used as schools in the Belmont area.

"We're very interested," Dr. Watkins said. "We haven't as yet decided on the number of units we'll need though."

The superintendent said a basic floor plan would be worked out with Karl Witt of the Belmont Construction Co., in much the same manner as was done with Strauss Brothers at Eastridge.

Witt said his firm was "now in the process of buying land and drawing up plans."

Arrangements will be made for the construction company to repurchase the homes after the need for "emergency classrooms" passes with completion of new school buildings, Witt said.

County Receives Tax Complaints

"Quite a few" complaints on real estate taxes have been registered at both the Lancaster County Treasurer's and Commissioners' offices.

However, Treasurer C. E. Berg said not too many complaints have been coming in on personal property taxes.

Berg "roughly" estimated that 5 to 10 per cent of persons who have paid taxes in his office have complained about their tax bill.

In most of these cases, he explained, real estate valuations had been increased.

Commissioner Chris Kuhner said hardly a day has gone by without some complaints on real estate taxes.

Kuhner said he advises complainants to fill out a complaint card requesting the Board of Equalization to review the properties next spring as nothing can legally be done until then.

Court Upholds City In Niklaus Action

William Niklaus, disbarred Lincoln attorney, Friday in Supreme Court lost his attempt to have dismissed of his suit against the city of Lincoln reinstated. Lancaster County District Court had dismissed his suit and the action was upheld.

Niklaus had sought to enjoin City Treasurer Frank Miller from making payments to anyone under a contract the city made with the Dobson Brothers Construction Co. to build a water reservoir at 51st Street at a cost of $246,746.

The Supreme Court held that public bodies possess a discretionary power in awarding contracts and that because Dobson Bros. had their equipment and men available for immediate use the council authorized the contract.

"There is no showing that the council acted arbitrarily, or from favoritism, ill-will, fraud, collusion or any other such motives," the Court said. "In the absence of such proof, it must be presumed the public officials performed their duty."

'Condemn McCarthy For Slime'

Sen. Stennis Hits At Joe's Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) was assailed Friday as a spreader of "slush and slime," and defended as a victim of spiteful slanders, in the week's final session of the Senate debate on the question of censuring him.

The slush and slime charge came from Sen. Stennis (D-Miss), a member of the special committee which recommended censure for McCarthy. Stennis argued the Senate must "condemn" McCarthy's conduct in order to set a standard of political honor.

Republican Sen. Bricker (Ohio) and Goldwater (Ariz) came swiftly to McCarthy's defense, praising him as the symbol of American resistance to communism and blaming Communist influence for the move to rebuke him.

Finally a second member of the censure committee, Sen. Carlson (R-Kan), took the floor and protested sharply against McCarthy's charge that the committee members were "unwitting handmaidens" of the Communist party.

Carlson declared McCarthy's accusation—made in a speech he put into the Congressional Record Wednesday—was untrue, was a violation of Senate rules and "is therefore out of order."

The Kansas lawmaker likewise protested what he called the "legalistic inquiries" with which the McCarthy side has been bombarding committee members, and declared any "rear-guard" action to delay the proceedings will not go down well with the voters back home.

Don't Sacrifice Dignity

"We can certainly solve this problem," Carlson said, "without the sacrifice of the dignity of this chamber."

Goldwater (R-Ariz) described the censure move as "the culminating act to destroy America's foremost fighter against communism," and accused McCarthy's foes of hypocrisy.

"The masterminds in this fight have said one thing and meant another," Goldwater declared. "Their propaganda has dripped with idealism, high-mindedness, and lofty sentiments. Their deeds have come from the darkness . . .

Beatrice Lions To Furnish Two Hospital Rooms

Lincoln Star Special

BEATRICE, Neb. — Beatrice Lions Club members will furnish one room at each of Beatrice's two hospitals, club officers have announced.

The money, $750 for each hospital, will be given to the hospitals when their building plans are completed. Lutheran Hospital is presently planning a drive for funds for improvements at the hospital and the Mennonite Hospital will begin construction of a new hospital when additional Hill-Burton funds are made available, possibly next year.

Jeary To Attend AF Conference

Mayor Clark Jeary has announced plans to attend a conference in Washington, Dec. 1 in connection with proposals leading to a declaration of permanency for the Lincoln Air Force Base.

The trip is at the invitation of the Air Force. Major topic of discussion will be an Air Force requirement that to declare the Lincoln base permanent, the city must render to the government full title to the base property.

Such a transfer of title would require a vote of the people. By virtue of a vote of the people in April of 1953, the base property is now leased to the government for 99 years.

While in Washington, Jeary will also attend a conference of mayors from cities with populations over 70,000. This is an annual meeting called by the President to discuss a subject of national importance.

Last year's conference was on civil defense.

Heart Attack Cited In Kiplinger Death

An autopsy into the death of Gerald Kiplinger, 48, of 1440 Peach, has revealed the cause as a heart attack, according to Lancaster County Attorney Frederick Wagener.

Mr. Kiplinger was found by a passerby after falling into bookstore shelving in front of 132 No. 10th and suffered cuts about the head. He died enroute to a hospital.

Wagener said the autopsy showed no brain injury and no coroner's inquest would be called. Mr. Kiplinger, a Lincoln purple heart veteran, had been treated for a heart condition, Wagener added.

Miss Wagner was one of five persons in the United States to receive the merit awards for their work in adult education nationally.

Miss Wagner also was recognized for her work in Lincoln, which was said to have one of the outstanding general adult education programs in the United States.

A member of the board of directors and one of the organizers of the National Association of Public School Adult Educators, Miss Wagner also is a national committee chairman of the Adult Education Association of the U.S.A.

She attended the national conventions of both groups in Chicago, where the adult educators' group held its third annual meeting.

Belmont To Have School 'Houses'

Another "home-school" system is in the planning stage with final arrangements expected to be completed at the next meeting of the Board of Education, Dr. Steven Watkins, superintendent of schools, said Friday night.

Already in operation in the Eastridge development, where five homes are being used, the new proposal calls for homes to be used as schools in the Belmont area.

"We're very interested," Dr. Watkins said. "We haven't as yet decided on the number of units we'll need though."

The superintendent said a basic floor plan would be worked out with Karl Witt of the Belmont Construction Co., in much the same manner as was done with Strauss Brothers at Eastridge.

Witt said his firm was "now in the process of buying land and drawing up plans."

Arrangements will be made for the construction company to repurchase the homes after the need for "emergency classrooms" passes with completion of new school buildings, Witt said.

NAUGATUCK, Conn. (AP) — A mattress you can make as firm or as soft as you like has been perfected by a firm here. You sleep on a surface of foam rubber supported by an envelope of air, joined to lateral cylinders of air," the firm says. The firmness or softness is controlled by regulating the air pressure through a valve at the foot of the bed.

County Receives Tax Complaints

"Quite a few" complaints on real estate taxes have been registered at both the Lancaster County Treasurer's and Commissioners' offices.

However, Treasurer C. E. Berg said not too many complaints have been coming in on personal property taxes.

Berg "roughly" estimated that 5 to 10 per cent of persons who have paid taxes in his office have complained about their tax bill.

In most of these cases, he explained, real estate valuations had been increased.

Commissioner Chris Kuhner said hardly a day has gone by without some complaints on real estate taxes.

Kuhner said he advises complainants to fill out a complaint card requesting the Board of Equalization to review the properties next spring as nothing can legally be done until then.

Court Upholds City In Niklaus Action

William Niklaus, disbarred Lincoln attorney, Friday in Supreme Court lost his attempt to have dismissal of his suit against the city of Lincoln reinstated. Lancaster County District Court had dismissed his suit and the action was upheld.

Niklaus had sought to enjoin City Treasurer Frank Miller from making payments to anyone under a contract the city made with the Dobson Brothers Construction Co. to build a water reservoir at 51st Street at a cost of $246,746.

The Supreme Court held that public bodies possess a discretionary power in awarding contracts and that because Dobson Bros. had their equipment and men available for immediate use the council authorized the contract.

"There is no showing that the council acted arbitrarily, or from favoritism, ill-will, fraud, collusion or any other such motives," the Court said. "In the absence of such proof, it must be presumed the public officials performed their duty."

Dixon-Yates Hasn't Held Up A-Program—Strauss

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Lewis L. Strauss testified Friday the Atomic Energy Commission's weapons program has not been impaired in the long uproar over the Dixon-Yates power contract.

Appearing before the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, which is studying the contract, Strauss said he was afraid the hearings had produced "a misleading impression" to the effect "that the weapons program has been impaired."

"In my opinion," he said, "it has not."

Diverted

AEC Commissioner Thomas E. Murray had said in previous testimony that the Dixon-Yates issue had diverted the commission's attention from its primary job—producing fissionable materials and atomic weapons.

With Strauss and other AEC officials on the witness stand Friday, the Committee was combing over the contract paragraph by paragraph.

Acting Comptroller General Frank H. Weitzel also was on the witness list. He heads the General Accounting Office, which keeps tab for Congress on government spending.

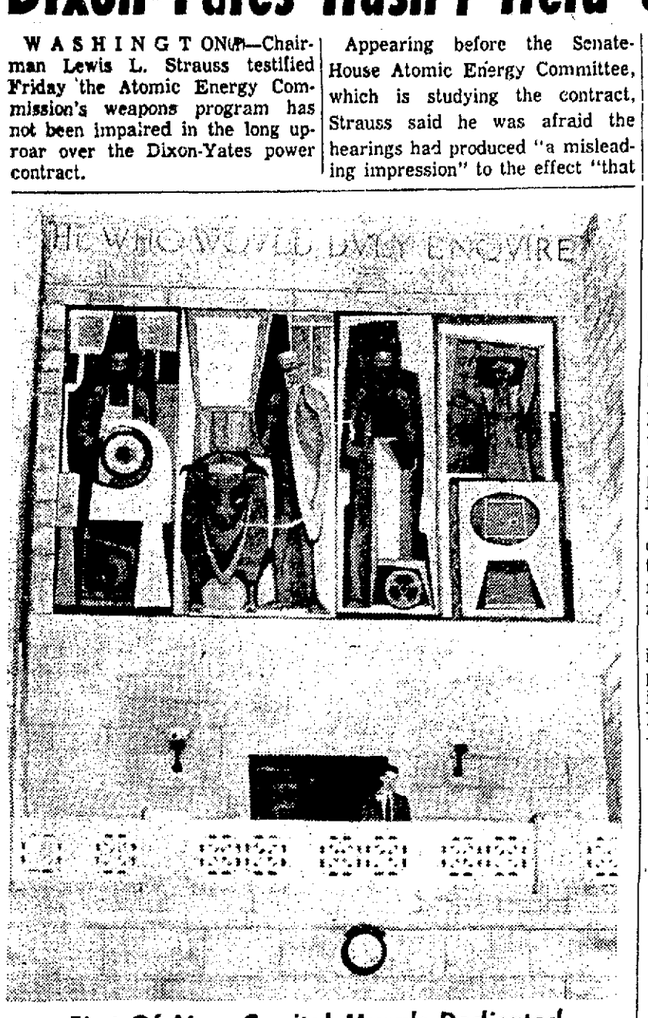
GAO had found fault with parts of the original Dixon-Yates contract but evidently some of its major objections were met by last minute modifications.

Signed Thursday, the contract is between AEC and a utility company formed by E. H. Dixon, president of Middle South Utilities, Inc., and E. A. Yates, board chairman of the Southern Co.

It calls for Dixon-Yates to supply 600,000 kilowatts of energy, with the government paying 20 million dollars a year for 25 years for the power. Under the contract, Dixon-Yates is to build a 107-million-dollar generating plant at West Memphis, Ark., to replace power the Tennessee Valley Authority now supplies to atomic installations.

Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Committee, said he hoped to wind up hearings on the contract with Weitzel's testimony then get a vote tomorrow on waiving a 30-day period in which the document would be considered by Congress at a time when both Senate and House are in session. President Eisenhower and AEC have asked for the waiver and Republicans claim they have the votes to put across the proposal.

Strauss testified that he had looked over minutes of commission meetings and found that instead of monopolizing the commission's time, the Dixon-Yates affair figured in "something less than 3 per cent of the discussions."



First Of New Capitol Murals Dedicated

First Mural Is Unveiled At Statehouse

The first of three murals authorized for the rotunda of the State Capitol was unveiled Friday afternoon in the presence of about 100 visitors.

Gov. Robert Crosby said completion of the decorations for the building had been "too long delayed" and that he was "happy to be governor" when the first step toward completing the murals was taken.

Governor-elect Victor Anderson won applause when instead of making a talk he merely turned on the special lights on the mural.

Mrs. Edna Basten Donald, Grand Island, representing the murals commission and the women of the state, said the mural was intended to be modern and represent the 20th century rather than the time the building was constructed.

James E. Lawrence, president of the Nebraska Historical Society, said completion of the mural was another step forward in the history of the state.

Eugene Kingman, director of the Joslyn Art Museum, explained that murals represent "ideas, not literal illustration." He said the artist's ideas were something that each visitor could think out for himself.

Col. Harry F. Cunningham, professional advisor to the commission, was master of ceremonies.

Heavy Haze

COPENHAGEN (INS)—Dr. Alfred Rosenberg, chief enemy of tobacco in Denmark, could hardly find his way to the platform to talk on smoking to the Vesterbro Youth Club. A thick cloud of smoke obscured the way.

Mrs. M. C. Williams Services Monday

Services for Mrs. Mattie Cora Williams, 83, 137 No. 25th, will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Roberts. Burial will be in Wyuka.

Mrs. Williams

Mrs. Williams, who died Thursday, was the widow of Frank L. Williams who was editor of The Lincoln Journal from 1928 until his death in 1943.

Born in Indiana, Mrs. Williams had lived in Kearney and North Platte before coming to Lincoln in 1899. She and Mr. Williams were married at Kearney in 1889.

Active in church and charity work, Mrs. Williams belonged to St. Paul Methodist Church and was a member of the Bryan Memorial Hospital board.

Settlement Okayed

A $831.25 lump sum settlement to Niles Towle of 1812 Sewell from Poindexter Bottling Co., for injuries suffered in a July, 1953, accident near Panama during employment as a truck driver, has been approved by the Lancaster District Court.

BOTH PARTIES ASK A RECOUNT IN NEW JERSEY

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—The Democratic and Republican parties, acting independently of each other, Friday sought U.S. Senate election recounts in all of the state's 21 counties.

The Democrats acted in behalf of the apparent loser, Charles R. Howell, and the Republicans followed suit in what they termed "a protective measure" for Clifford P. Case.

The legal moves came as Camden County—the last county to do so — completed its recanvass to give Case a plurality of 3,369 votes on the basis of final official figures.

The Camden recanvass pared 100 votes off Case's total there but did not alter Howell's vote.

Ready For Yule

GOTHENBURG (INS) — Crewmen of the Swedish navy minelayer Aelvsnabben have a real Swedish Christmas all prepared—although they will celebrate it in the Indian Ocean. The 263-man crew got ready to leave on a six-month round-the-world cruise by putting Christmas Trees into cold storage in the ship's hold.
